To All Who Served Through the Holy Season of Easter

Beginning with the beautiful and intense celebration of the Easter Vigil, the season of Easter continues for fifty days, including the celebration of the Lord's Ascension on the fortieth day, and concluding with Pentecost Sunday. Why so long ? Because fifty days is the exact time span from the first appearance of the resurrection of Jesus to the pouring out of the promised Holy Spirit as the initiating of the Church's mission to all nations.

This year, because of the very early date of Easter, the long season was also a very "packed" season. This was due to our being assigned an early date for Confirmation, followed closely by the celebration of First Communion.

Having now said our farewell to the long Easter season, I write to express my heartfelt thanks for all those whose planning and service made possible our joyful and orderly liturgical "pilgrimage" through the holiest of seasons. I won't cite your names, for fear of surely leaving somebody out. But believe me, my appreciation goes deep. And so ...

For our catechists who—by weekly teaching and planning and leading in retreats—prepared our brothers and sisters in Christ of all ages for receiving the Sacraments of Initiation during the Easter season.

And for the children who, with the encouragement of their parents, participated in their own sacramental preparation.

For all who served in our Easter masses, by singing in the choir, serving at the altar, reading the Scriptures, serving as ushers, lectors, sacristans, gift bearers, Eucharistic ministers.

For all who - by your planning and arranging and giving money--provided the beautiful and abundant flowers to adorn our church and chapel.

For those who renewed our gardens and cared for our grounds.

For all who by their faithful offerings of money sustained our parish through the holy season.

And for our parish staff who enabled and coordinated your service.

I give thanks, and I pray that God will grant you the joy of your service.

Yours in Christ, Fr. Phillip M. Johnson

Stewardship Reflection: Most Holy Trinity Sunday: The Holy Spirit Guides Stewards

" but when He comes, the Spirit of Truth, he will guide you to all truth...John 16:13a

Jesus sent the Holy Spirit to help us know and live the truth. To prepare ourselves, we need to open our hearts to receive this gift before we can give it. In Stewardship, develop a daily prayer routine to ask the Holy Spirit to help guide your thoughts and actions.

MOST HOLY TRINITY SUNDAY, MAY 22, 2016

Small Christian Community Faith Sharing

Please note that we put the following week's Gospel passage in this space so you can prepare all week for Proclamation of the Gospel the following Sunday. Faith Sharing helps ordinary people connect their faith with everyday life experiences.

Excerpt from the Gospel for The Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ, May 29, 2016 - Luke 9:11b-17

(Jesus asks the apostles to give the people on the hillside something to eat. There are more than 5,000 people present to listen to Jesus. The apostles complain that they only have five loaves and two fish. Jesus tells the apostles to have the people sit down. Then…) Jesus took the five loaves and the two fish, and looking up to heaven, he said the blessing over them, broke them, and gave them to the disciples to set before the crowd. They all ate and were satisfied. And when the leftover fragments were picked up, they filled twelve wicker baskets.

Commentary:

Maybe the most perfect meal of all is the one in which no one goes home hungry. That's a meal yet to be celebrated on this planet, since a large portion of the human race goes to bed without having eaten at all. It is no exaggeration to say that it is the responsibility of those who enjoy the privilege of the Eucharist to make our best and most earnest contribution to the problem of world hunger. Every dollar we spend to eliminate hunger honors the example of Jesus, who fed the multitude in front of him simply because they were hungry. His words on that occasion - "Give them some food yourselves" - ring down through the centuries with an urgency and authority that we cannot ignore. Jesus also said, "What you do for the least of my sisters and brothers, you do for me." Dare we deny bread to the One who set the table that supplies us with everlasting life? And if we wonder how much we are obliged to give, the answer is plainly given. All must eat until they are satisfied, and then our offering can be deemed enough.

Questions for Reflection and Sharing:

1. What is God saying to me in this Gospel passage?
2. What word or phrase in this Gospel speaks to me?
3. What word or phrase in the Commentary resonates with me?

Every 20 seconds another child becomes a victim of the war against the unborn. There are no graves we can visit, no public memorials, only dumpsters and incinerators where the mangled bodies of the war casualties are quietly discarded in back alleys. As people of God, we must end abortion.
