The Catholic Faith in Slow Motion (No. 7)

Fr. Phillip Johnson

A continuing series of reflections about professing, praying, and living the Faith of the Church, in celebration of the Year of Faith, proclaimed by Pope Benedict XVI. Previous articles in the series can be found on our parish website: stthomasmorenj.org.

“Hallowed Be Thy Name”

“Our Father” is not a generic name for God used by all faiths and religions. It is Jesus Christ, the Son of God, who reveals to us his Father in heaven, and brings us into relationship with him. And so, as the Liturgy teaches us, “At the Saviors command and formed by divine teaching, we dare to say, “Our Father . . . That was the gist of my first reflection on the Lord's Prayer (02-17-13).

Hallowed be thy name . . .

The words are not only a declaration. They are a plea, a petition, the first petition of the Lord's Prayer. We ask God that he may keep holy his Name in our hearts, in our actions, in our words. We ask that he may teach us how to hallow his Name in the world. Why? Because if the Name of God is not hallowed, all that is right and good and lovely and innocent withers and dies. But the day that God's Name is finally and perfectly hallowed will be the day of our salvation.

And there is something else, something that has to do with love. When we love and admire someone who is particularly good and honorable, we long for their goodness to be known by others. We long that they may finally get the credit they deserve. We delight when they are recognized and praised. Every thing Jesus did and said was for the sake of honoring his Father. Jesus would teach us to be true children of his Father, who long for our Father to be honored.

Thy kingdom come, thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. . . .

This is a continuation of the first petition. Once again, Jesus would have us pray this prayer with him. We know that this was his constant prayer. His will was entirely united with the will of his Father. “Father, not my will, but your will be done” (Mat. 26:36-39).

To pray for the coming of God's kingdom is to pray for the end of the old world and the coming of the new world. Only God can so transform history, only the Creator can “re-create”. But if we struggle now to do his will on earth as it is done in heaven, then we are living the new life ahead of time; we are dying to the old and living for the new. We die to selfishness to live for the good of others; we die to the old world of lust to live for love; we die to the old god of the self to live for our Father in heaven. In this way the whole of our life become a prayer: Thy kingdom come. And we are no longer afraid of the dying of the old world.

C. S. Lewis said that in praying this petition, “Thy will be one on earth as it is in heaven,” he learned to pay more attention to those who were beautiful examples of holiness. And he learned to pray, “Let thy will be done in my life as it is done in their life.” This is the way the Our Father works in us. Each petition is personally particularized in our hearts. The way of prayer becomes the way of life.

We will think more about this continuity of prayer and life as we continue our reflections on the Our Father.

STEWARDSHIP REFLECTION

"He said to the gardener, 'For three years now I have come in search of fruit on this fig tree but have found none.'" (Luke 13:7)

Are we like the barren fig tree? What does God find when he searches for the fruits which we have given back? How will you respond when God asks you what you have done with all the gifts He has given you?

THE PARISH REJOICES...

with the family of Emily Ann Ross who was received into the Church through the waters of Baptism.

The Stations of the Cross are being held on Friday evenings during Lent at 7:00 p.m. in the Chapel.

"ACTS OF SACRIFICE" for Lent

In the Gathering Space is a Large Cross draped with a purple shroud. We invite all parishioners to write an "Act of Sacrifice" they are performing for Lent on one of the small white crosses in the gathering space.

Then place the cross in the box provided as a sign of your commitment. These crosses will be placed on the shroud during Lent, and will be burned in the Lighting of the Easter fire at the Easter Vigil. May our personal sacrifices be a concrete sign of our love for Christ, and may they enhance our spiritual preparation during this Holy Season.

Small Christian Community Faith Sharing

Please note that we put the following week's Gospel passage in this space so you can prepare all week for proclamation of the Gospel the following Sunday. Faith Sharing helps ordinary people connect their faith with everyday life experiences.

Excerpt from the Gospel for the Fourth Sunday of Lent, March 10, 2013 – Luke 15:1-3, 11-32

(The parable of the Prodigal Son)

While he was still a long way off, his father caught sight of him, and was filled with compassion. He ran to his son, embraced him and kissed him. The son said to him, "Father, I have sinned against heaven and against you; I no longer deserve to be called your son." (The father ordered a feast to celebrate the young son's return. The older son, on hearing about the feast grew angry and jealous. He had been faithful and had no party. His younger brother had strayed from home and now was being rewarded with a feast). The father said to the older son, "My son, you are here with me always; everything I have is yours. But now we must celebrate and rejoice, because your brother was dead and has come to life again; he was lost and has been found."

Commentary:

Jesus says to the prodigal in all of us: "You do have a father like this. He is waiting for you to find yourself, your true self made in his image and likeness, and come on home. Never mind where you've been or what you did. The most important thing is who you are: a child of God. There's not a thing you can do to lose that identity. The party waits for you."

Questions for Reflection and Sharing:

1. What is God saying to me in this Gospel passage?
2. What word or phrase in this Gospel speaks to me?
3. What word or phrase in the Reflection resonates with me?

SECOND COLLECTION NEXT WEEKEND: We will take up The Catholic Relief Services Collection at all Masses. It supports 6 Catholic agencies that touch more than 100 million lives around the world with food, support to displaced refugees and invaluable life skills to those seeking a better life.

REMINDER:

Daylight Saving Time begins next weekend, March 9/10. Turn clocks FORWARD, one hour, late Saturday evening.

A major Vatican document reminds us that the right to life is primary: "The teachings of Pope John XXIII, the Second Vatican Council, and Pope Paul VI have given abundant indication of the concept of human rights as articulated by the Magisterium. Pope John Paul II has drawn up a list of them in the Encyclical Centesimus Annus... The first right presented in this list is the right to life, from conception to its natural end, which is the condition for the exercise of all other rights and, in particular, implies the illicitness of every form of procured abortion and euthanasia."
