PARISH MISSION & VISION STATEMENTS

Mission (Purpose)

Through the Sacrament of Baptism, we the Catholic Community of St. Thomas More respond to our call to holiness.

Vision (Goals)

Empowered by Baptism, inspired by the Holy Spirit, and formed by the Word of God and the Sacraments, especially the Eucharist, we live out our Mission by working together:

- To structure prayerful, vibrant, participatory, Sunday worship experiences.
- To provide Life Long Faith formation for all age levels.
- To care for the young, the old, the sick, the hurting and the needy, both inside and outside our parish.
- To promote faith sharing, prayer, support, learning and listening to one another as a model for nourishing and sustaining our faith community.
- To welcome back, with hospitality, those who have left our faith community.

VISITATION AND ANOINTING OF THE SICK

PRAY FOR VOCATIONS!

"God chose us in Christ, before the foundation of the world, to be holy." (cf. Eph1:4) God has chosen each person in Christ to live out that holiness through a particular vocation.

Rev. Michael Romano, Director of Vocations, will be at our parish next weekend, March 16/17, to preach about religious vocations. While here, he will be available to meet with any young person with questions about the call to the priesthood or consecrated life. If you would like to set up a time to meet with Fr. Romano next weekend, you can contact him beforehand at michael.romano@camdendiocese.org or 583-2858. Together, we pray that more people from our parish may generously respond to God's call to the priesthood and religious life!

St. Thomas More St. Vincent de Paul Society

Lent is a call not just to "give up something" but more important to "give something for the poor." Wherever you live in the parish, there are poor families within walking distance of your home.

Through your almsgiving you are performing a good work; far greater than you think. Next weekend we will be collecting food and funds to purchase food after all Masses so that together we can help the suffering and the poor.

The Catholic Faith in Slow Motion

Fr. Phillip Johnson

A series of reflections about professing, praying, and living the Faith of the Church, in celebration of the Year of Faith, proclaimed by Pope Benedict XVI. Previous articles in the series can be found on our parish website: stthomasmorenj.org.

Give Us This Day Our Daily Bread

Today . . .

The past is not to be simply forgotten, but it is, after all, the past. The future may be prudently anticipated, but it remains always uncertain and beyond our control. In the life of faith, it is today that claims our attention. “Today” is a recurring spiritual theme in Holy Scripture. “Oh, that today you would hear the voice of the Lord” (Ps 95:8). “Do not be anxious about tomorrow. Let the day's own troubles be sufficient for the day (Matt 6:34). “Encourage one another every day, as long as it is called “today” (Heb 3:13). So we are taught to pray: Give us today, bread enough for today.

Manna in the Wilderness . . .

This petition calls to mind the Old Testament story of the “manna,” the bread that miraculously fell from heaven to sustain God's people in their long wilderness sojourn (Exodus, ch. 16). The people were to collect only a “daily portion” (v. 4) – just enough for each household for that day. “Let no one keep any of it until tomorrow morning,” Moses instructed. “And none had too much and none had too little.” But “when some kept a part of it over until the following morning, it became wormy and rotten” (vv. 16-20). It is impossible to think that this story was not on the mind of Jesus as he taught us to pray, “Give us this day our daily bread.”

Bread . . .

“Bread” stands for all our material needs. In fact, according to Jesus, this is where faith in God begins – with a creaturely, childlike trust that our heavenly Father will provide our most basic needs. But “one does not live by bread alone,” says Jesus, “but by every word that comes from the mouth of God” (Matt 4:4). And so we pray: “Give us to know God's will for us today. Give us courage enough just for today. Give us our daily portion of love toward others, emotional strength and wisdom to guide our children today. Keep me today from that particular sin that stalks me and makes me ashamed. We don't need to hoard God's gifts against an uncertain future. Each day his promises are renewed.

Eucharistic Bread . . .

Speaking of his Eucharistic Body, Jesus said, “This is the bread that came down from heaven. Unlike your ancestors who ate (the manna) and still died, whoever eats this bread will live forever” (John 6:58). Not every one can attend the Holy Eucharist daily. But all of us can pray daily, from Eucharist to Eucharist, “give us this day our daily bread” – joining by faith with the voice of the gathered Church as she prays at Christ's altar every day, “Give us this day our daily bread”, and receives the life-giving manna on the sojourn to heaven.

SECOND COLLECTION NEXT WEEKEND

for the annual Collection for Black and Indian Missions. Our financial contribution helps support Catholic American Indian communities on reservations, in rural areas and inner cities. It also supports African American schools and evangelization programs, particularly in the south. With open hearts let us unite ourselves with the love of Christ in supporting this collection.

The Stations of the Cross are being held on Friday evenings during Lent at 7:00 p.m. in the Chapel.

Small Christian Community Faith Sharing

Please note that we put the following week's Gospel passage in this space so you can prepare all week for proclamation of the Gospel the following Sunday. Faith Sharing helps ordinary people connect their faith with everyday life experiences.

Excerpt from the Gospel for the Fifth Sunday of Lent, March 17, 2013 – John 8:1-11

The scribes and Pharisees attempt to trick Jesus by bringing to him a woman caught in adultery. The law says that such women should be stoned to death. What would Jesus say?

“Jesus bent down and began to write on the ground with his finger. But when they continued asking him, Jesus straightened up and said to them, ‘Let the one among you who is without sin be the first to throw a stone at her.’ Again, Jesus bent down and wrote on the ground. And in response, they went away one by one...When Jesus saw that no one condemned the woman he said, “Neither do I condemn you. Go, and from now on do not sin anymore.”

Commentary:

This Gospel is centered not so much on the woman or her sin of adultery as it is on a personal encounter with Jesus. Encountering Jesus always exposes the truth - both the woman and the crowd learn the truth about their own sin. They and we are not that different. We are all sinners who need to encounter Jesus, ask the truth about ourselves, and receive Jesus' mercy.

Questions for Reflection and Sharing:

1. What is God saying to me in this Gospel passage?
2. What word or phrase in this Gospel speaks to me?
3. What word or phrase in the Reflection resonates with me?

How can we de-fund the multi-million dollar big abortion industry? Our elected officials are public servants, not king and queens. Unless we make demands, they will assume that the pro-death side speaks for us. We cannot and must not remain silent. As children of God, we must vote for moral, pro-life politicians at all levels of government.
