PARISH MISSION & VISION STATEMENTS

Mission (Purpose)

Through the Sacrament of Baptism, we the Catholic Community of St. Thomas More respond to our call to holiness.

Vision (Goals)

Empowered by Baptism, inspired by the Holy Spirit, and formed by the Word of God and the Sacraments, especially the Eucharist, we live out our Mission by working together:

- To structure prayerful, vibrant, participatory, Sunday worship experiences.
- To provide Life Long Faith formation for all age levels.
- To care for the young, the old, the sick, the hurting and the needy, both inside and outside our parish.
- To promote faith sharing, prayer, support, learning and listening to one another as a model for nourishing and sustaining our faith community.
- To welcome back, with hospitality, those who have left our faith community.

VISITATION AND ANOINTING OF THE SICK

Please call the parish office, 424-3212, if a family member is seriously ill or facing/recovering from surgery and would like to see a priest or receive the Anointing of the Sick. Holy Communion is also available to those who are homebound on an ongoing basis.

SACRAMENT OF BAPTISM

Please make arrangements for Baptism in advance through the parish office. Parents and godparents are required to attend a preparatory session.

MARRIAGE

Couples planning to marry will attend a marriage preparation program called Living in Love. Call office for appointment.

RCIA

The Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults is a process of formation for full initiation into the Catholic Church. It is open to those never Baptized; those baptized in another faith; and Catholics who have not received First Holy Communion and Confirmation.

For more information, please contact Sister Ann Byrnes, RSM, Pastoral Associate, 424-3212 ext. 104.

RCIA Team: Sister Ann Byrnes and John Mohan

House of Charity 2016 Campaign Prayer Called to Mercy

We are called to Mercy to serve in Charity.

We are called to become instruments of God's Mercy to those in need.

We pray for inspiration to cheerfully serve with trust and faith in Him.

With the strength of God and the gift of the Spirit, we pray our work will serve the spiritual and physical needs of many of our neighbors.

May the work we engage in for our House of Charity enable the love of God to grow in abundance.

Together we are Called to Mercy.

Amen.

Parish Collection for January 17, 2016 was $8,516.00 and 180 envelopes were used. Online donations were $565.00 from 12 donors. As always, thank you for your generosity to our parish.

In honor of St. Blaise Day, blessing of throats will take place after all Masses January 30th & 31st.

Stewardship Reflection– Stewards Share

*“Go, eat rich foods and drink sweet drinks, and allot portions to those who had nothing prepared....”
(Nehemiah 8:10a)*

Ezra's instructions to the people show us that God does not forbid us from enjoying the good things in life, He wants us to be happy! However, He expects us in Stewardship to generously share our blessings with those who are in need, without expecting anything in return.

The Catholic Faith In Slow Motion (no. 74)

Fr. Phillip M. Johnson

A series of reflections about thinking, praying, and professing the Faith of the Church

“Our Father”

Overhearing Jesus Pray . . .

“Jesus was praying in a certain place, and when he ceased one of his disciples said to him, 'Lord, teach us to pray'. And he said to them, 'When you pray, say: Our Father in heaven . . .’” (Luke 11:1-2; Cf. Matt 6:9-13). The first words of the Lord’s prayer are no longer a shock. Millions assume that “our Father” is a universal and generic way of speaking to God, perhaps an obvious synonym for “God”. So, in receiving this prayer from our Lord, the first thing we need to know is its specific origin in the Christian revelation. That the eternal Creator condescends to be addressed by us as “Abba, Father” (Gal. 4:6) is anything but a universal religious truism. As the Liturgy of the Holy Mass teaches us, it is only “As the Savior taught us, and formed by divine teaching” [that] we dare to say” Our Father.

Whose Father? . . .

The primary relationship with which the gospel is concerned is not the one between Jesus and his followers, but rather the relationship between Jesus and the One he alone addresses as “My Father” (Matt. 26:39 ff; John 14:1-7). In drawing the disciples to himself Jesus desires to give them his own relationship to his Father. He desires to share with them his own “Spirit of Sonship” (Gal. 4:6). The Son desires to include us in his own love for the Father, and in the Father's love for him. When he places on our lips his Abba, Father, Jesus is giving us infinitely more than a devotional formula to memorize. He is offering us his own intimacy with his Father; he is drawing us into the ceaseless “conversation” between the Father and the Son.

Praying Within the Fellowship of the Divine Love . . .

“No one knows the Son except the Father, and no one knows the Father except the Son, and anyone to whom the Son reveals him” (Matt. 11:27; see also John 1:18). Christ never leaves you to pray on your own. When you pray his prayer, he is always praying in you and with you, sharing with you his intimacy with his Father. For it is only through the Son that we can know the Father. At the same time, when you pray “Our Father” in unison with Jesus and in his Name, the Father is showing you the Son. He is revealing to you how to pray and to live as a child of the Father.

So it is that to pray in faith, “Our Father”, is to be held by God’s grace within the never-failing exchange of love between Jesus and his Father.

Within the “frame” of the Our Father is revealed everything you ever need to pray for yourself or for another. The whole prayer life of the Church on earth and in heaven is included within this prayer of the Son, Who lives and reigns with the Father, in the Unity of the Holy Spirit, One God, forever and ever.

Mercy Works : Take action to Welcome the Stranger.

During this month where we remember the corporal work of mercy to Welcome the Stranger, you can have a direct impact on the lives of refugees who are beginning their new lives in the U.S. Donate basic items comprising one of the four “welcome kits” in the areas of household, kitchen bedroom and hygiene. These basic necessities help Catholic Charities furnish homes for families who arrive in the U. S. after an exhausting journey with little more than the clothes on their backs. Shopping for these items or building a welcome kit as a family can provide a great opportunity to enter together into the experience of the newly arrived refugee families. Find the listing of welcome kit items and learn how to donate by visiting CatholicCharitiesCamden.org/mercy

Attention Sandwich Makers:

The next date for making sandwiches is Feb. 3rd in the St. Thomas More Hall after the 9:00am Mass. All are welcome to assist in this ministry to feed the poor and hungry.

Thank You from Sr. Claire Sullivan, IHM:

...I am sending my deepest thanks for the generous donations ...received during the Christmas Season. Your gifts helped many families experience a more joyful holiday.
May God send you many blessings.

THIRD SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME, JANUARY 24, 2016

Small Christian Community Faith Sharing

Please note that we put the following week’s Gospel passage in this space so you can prepare all week for Proclamation of the Gospel the following Sunday. Faith Sharing helps ordinary people connect their faith with everyday life experiences.

Excerpt from the Gospel for the Fourth Sunday in Ordinary Time, January 31, 2016 – Luke 4:21-30

(Jesus was speaking in the synagogue in Nazareth. Those who heard him were amazed. However, they found it hard to accept Jesus’ words because they knew him as the son of a carpenter. What could he possibly know?) “Jesus said to them, Amen, I say to you, no prophet is accepted in his own native place. Indeed, I tell you, there were many widows in Israel in the days of Elijah when the sky was closed for three and a half years and a severe famine spread over the entire land. It was to none of these that Elijah was sent, but only to a widow in Zarephath in the land of Sidon...When the people heard this, they rose up, drove Jesus out of the town, and led him to the brow of the hill...to hurl him down headlong. But Jesus passed through the midst of them and went away.”

Commentary:

The people of Nazareth are like most of us - not interested in being challenged or changed. Jesus reminds them that prophets are traditionally accepted by outsiders, not insiders. So, the people of Nazareth decided to throw Jesus down to his death. They did not succeed that day, but they would succeed eventually. You and I are perhaps more civilized, less violent than the Nazarenes. We would never murder a prophet in cold blood. But we may be just as likely to shrug off the challenge to change our thinking. How could we possibly be wrong?

Questions for reflection

- 1. What is God saying to me in this Gospel passage?
2. What word or phrase in this Gospel speaks to me?
3. What word or phrase in the Reflection resonates with me?

“For many years I have been an outspoken advocate for the unborn child, because in a culture of abortion, the child is like a slave. The new civil rights movement of our time is the pro-life movement.”

Dr. Alveda King, niece of Martin Luther King, Jr. (Priests for Life Newsletter, July– August 2006

Al Mac Elrath, Respect Life Coordinator - 779-7130

Next Sunday, January 31st, the Knights of Columbus will be reciting the Rosary in the Chapel, after the 11:30 Mass.

Tuskegee Airmen, Dr. Eugene J. Richardson Holy Eucharist Parish 7: 00 pm, February 5, 2016

The Tuskegee Airmen were the first African American military aviators in the United States armed forces. All black military pilots who trained in the United States were trained at Tuskegee.

The Tuskegee 332nd Fighter Group was first sent overseas as part of Operation Torch, seeing action in Sicily and Italy. They were deployed as bomber escorts in Europe where they were very successful. Come and hear the history of the Tuskegee Airmen from someone who was there.
