Stewardship Reflection: 7th Sunday of Easter:

Living Stewardship

"I am the Alpha and the Omega. The first and the last, the beginning and the end." Revelation 22:13

This is a reminder of how we should live our lives 24 hours a day, 7 days a week— putting God first in all that we do. Not only when I am at Mass and parish activities, but when I am in the world, at work or at school. Living in Stewardship gratefully and generously is a lifestyle guiding me in making all my decisions.

The Ascension of Our Lord

St Luke, in the opening chapter of his Acts of the Apostles, writes this account of the Ascension:

He [the Risen Christ] presented himself alive to the apostles by many proofs after he had suffered, appearing to them during forty days and speaking about the kingdom of God. . . . When they had gathered together they asked him, “Lord, are you at this time going to restore the kingdom to Israel?” He answered them, “It is not for you to know the times or seasons that the Father has established by his own authority. But you will receive power when the Holy Spirit comes upon you, and you will be my witnesses. . . to the ends of the earth.” When he had said this, as they were looking on, he was lifted up, and a cloud took him from their sight (Acts 1:3, 6-9).

Forty Days . . .

One of the appearances of the risen Jesus turned out to be his last. During forty days the risen Jesus appeared to his apostles and other disciples. He established their faith and restored them to his fellowship. He taught them to understand the Holy Scriptures. He gave them their mission and established Peter as shepherd of his flock. He then was visibly “lifted up”, says St. Luke. Enshrouded by a cloud, he was “taken from their sight”. The Gospels make plain that this was a definitive departure. As he blessed them, he “parted from them” (literally, 'he exited') “and was taken up into heaven” (Luke 24:51). His disciples were no longer to expect his bodily appearances to continue. His presence with them would take a new and different form.

The Man Jesus . . .

Jesus, Mary's Son, born in Bethlehem and raised in Nazareth, ascended. That is to say, the Ascension is not to be understood as a “spiritual” abandonment of his truly human existence. The Ascension is not an undoing of the Incarnation in which the Eternal Son of God “became flesh and dwelt among us” (John 1:14). It is in his risen humanity that he ascends to the Father's “right hand in the heavens” (Eph. 1:20). The apostles will continue to address him in prayer and praise by his human Hebrew name, Jesus. He is “the one Mediator, the man Christ Jesus” (1 Tim. 2:5). And “at the Name of Jesus every knee shall bow and every tongue confess that Jesus Christ is Lord (Phil. 2:11). Our Lord does not cease to be our brother.

Why is this truth so important? Because it is our humanity that he came to share. It is our redeemed human nature that he takes with him into heaven. It is a truly human “place” he is preparing for us (John 14: 2, 3). For what is heaven? Heaven is the place where God and his human creatures can dwell together.

Love Ascended: The Marks of the Cross . . .

In his appearances over forty days, the Risen Jesus confirmed his identity to his disciples by showing them the signs of his suffering. His risen body was marked by the signs of his self-offering. It is a great blessing that, in depicting the Ascension, Christian art has preserved this striking memory. Jesus ascends marked with the sign of the Cross. His Resurrection and Ascension are indeed his victory over the Cross, but he does not simply leave the Cross behind. Rather, his suffering love is lifted up as the means of the world's salvation. He is forever the “lamb slain from the foundations of the world” (Rev. 13:8). And this is our salvation, that his sacrificial Love rules eternally “at the right hand of the Father”.

SEVENTH SUNDAY OF EASTER, MAY 8, 2016

Small Christian Community Faith Sharing

Please note that we put the following week's Gospel passage in this space so you can prepare all week for Proclamation of the Gospel the following Sunday. Faith Sharing helps ordinary people connect their faith with everyday life experiences.

Excerpt from the Gospel for Pentecost Sunday, May 15, 2016 - John 14:15-16

"...I will ask the Father, and he will give you another Advocate to be with you always."

Commentary:

We celebrate the remarkable feast of Pentecost as the birthday of the Church. The same Spirit that separated the earth from the sky, the sea from the dry land; the same breath that was breathed into Adam now comes to rest on a group of frightened people, and a new being is created. The origins of the Church lay with common people moved by the Spirit of God to follow after Jesus of Nazareth, before they had any idea what was going to be asked of them.

Questions for Reflection and Sharing:

1. What is God saying to me in this Gospel passage?
2. What word or phrase in this Gospel speaks to me?
3. What word or phrase in the Commentary resonates with me?

Think about this: Those who favor euthanasia speak of the "right to die." No one needs a right to die; it's a fact of life. What they really want is the "right to kill."

Al Mac Elrath, Respect Life Coordinator - 779-7130

Options for Women Baby Bottle Drive Continues!

Fill your bottles with silver coins, paper money or checks made out to "Options for Women" the weekend of May 21/22.

In addition, 50% of CCC funds collected in your diocese remain in your diocese to support local communication efforts. The reach of the CCC is truly immeasurable and you are invited to become a part of it.
