Stewardship Reflection:13th Sunday in Ordinary Time—Stewards Serve Others

“For you were called to freedom, brothers and sisters. But do not use this freedom as an opportunity for the flesh; rather serve one another through love.” Galatians 5: 13

We like to celebrate the fact that we are free to “live the good life.” But Jesus calls us to Stewardship. Saint Paul reminds us that Jesus sets us free so that we can serve one another, share our gifts and promote God’s work here on earth to glorify His name and not honor ourselves.

The Catholic Faith In Slow Motion (No.79 )

Fr. Phillip Johnson

A series of reflections on professing, praying, thinking, and living the Faith of the Church

Summer Vacation

For almost all of us the coming of summer means a change of pace. For many, it brings the gift of leisure. The summer vacation has for generations been a middle and upper class institution in Europe and America. And since the mid-Twentieth Century, the less well to do have been able to join in the fun. While living in England I never met a butcher or plumber or green grocer who did not once a year shut down the shop and head for some sunny shore.

I want to comment on just one aspect of this happy recreational habit. For a good number of self-described Christians, the vacation tradition temporarily trumps the church-going tradition. They somehow construe that being “on vacation” means taking a break from the public worship of God. My strong impression is that this has been more the case for Protestant Christians than for Catholics. But Catholics may be catching up. For some vacationing Catholics it would appear that being in the pews on Sunday falls in the class of those regular chores that can be avoided when on vacation.

Maybe you think this is only to be expected, but there is a keen irony in the situation worth pondering. Where does the very concept of “recreation” or “vacation” come from? It derives historically from the establishment of religious festival. As Josef Pieper explains in his Leisure as the Basis of Culture, holy days are the original holidays; pilgrimages are the original sightseeing tours. For long ages, and not only among Jewish and Christian cultures, the populous would be granted freedom from the normal grind of commerce and labor in order to celebrate holy days or weeks, or sometimes even months.

You see the irony. Self-respecting worshipers of God seem to need a vacation from the original holiday! The irony is a sad one; it signals a danger. At least Joseph Pieper is convinced of it. He thinks that religion, with its awareness of a transcendent order—and particularly the Christian religion with its awareness of life as gift—is fundamental to the very concept of leisure. He argues that modern secularist experiments in social engineering or anti-religious regimes inevitably create a “total work” society.

Have you ever felt like you needed to get back home to take a rest from that vacation you so carefully planned? Spiritually speaking, it is of course only our coming home to God that grants us the truest leisure. Sure, being present at the Sunday mass is an obligation, but it is not a “work obligation”. It is rather a holy obligation. That is, it is the obligation to one's true humanity, to one's spiritual sanity; it is the obligation to Grace, the obligation of gratitude and love.

“Be still and know that I am God” (Psalm 46:10). Vacate et videte quoniam ego sum Deus. The Latin can be translated: take a vacation and know that I am God. Wherever you roam this summer, may you hear God's call and find true stillness as you repose before the altar of Christ. And may your travels be safe and your homecoming joyful.

Confirmation Corner!

Have you thought about who your Confirmation Sponsor will be? Here are a few things to remember when choosing a sponsor. Your sponsor may be, but does not have to be your Godparent. Your sponsor must be a practicing Roman Catholic who has been fully initiated in the church (Baptism, Confirmation, and Eucharist), attends Mass regularly (Sundays and Holy Days of Obligation), is living according to the teachings of the Catholic Church. Your sponsor should be someone who supports you and your commitment to a Christian life. Your sponsor should be someone you can go to and talk to about your faith. Your sponsor should be someone you feel will support you and guide you in making decisions according to the faith. Think about why you want the person you are thinking about to be your Sponsor!

STM Youth

Congratulations to all the graduates at St. Thomas More Parish!

Gracious God, we give You thanks for all schools, colleges and universities, and for those who teach and those who learn. Bless our graduates who have completed this current course in their education. And may all their questioning bring them ever closer to You, the Source of all truth; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The CDC recommends these easy options for protections from UV radiation: Stay in the shade as often as possible; wear clothing that covers your arms and legs when exposed to the sun for long periods of time; wear a wide brim hat; wear wrap around sunglasses; use sunscreen SPF 15 or higher.

THIRTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME JUNE 26, 2016

Small Christian Community Faith Sharing

Please note that we put the following week's Gospel passage in this space so you can prepare all week for Proclamation of the Gospel the following Sunday. Faith Sharing helps ordinary people connect their faith with everyday life experiences.

Excerpt from the Gospel for the Fourteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time, July 3, 2016 - Luke 10:1-12, 17-20

(Jesus appoints seventy-two disciples to help with the preaching. He sends them out with specific directions to cure the sick. The seventy-two returned rejoicing.) They said, "Lord, even the demons are subject to us because of your name." Jesus said, "I have observed Satan fall like lightning from the sky. Behold, I have given you the power to 'tread upon serpents' and scorpions and upon the full force of the enemy and nothing will harm you. Nevertheless, do not rejoice because the spirits are subject to you, but rejoice because your names are written in heaven."

Commentary:

Success is sweet. When we know we've done well, it's a great feeling, and when someone else congratulates or praises us, that's even better. The seventy-two return from their first mission exhilarated by many successes. They expect Jesus to say, "Well done!" Jesus does commend them but warns them not to celebrate the wrong event. Jesus knows well that the hour will come when the powers of darkness gain the victory and even the Lord of life will be taken. The real victory is not the temporary effect you can see, but the eternal one still hidden from view.

Questions for Reflection and Sharing:

1. What is God saying to me in this Gospel passage?
2. What word or phrase in this Gospel speaks to me?
3. What word or phrase in the Commentary resonates with me?

The human person is the synthesis of the universe and is the reason for everything that exists. Present-day biomedical sciences and technologies must be at the service of human life and not vice versa.

(Cardinal Lozano Barragan, President of the Pontifical Council for Health Care Workers, Feb. 10, 2004.)

Al MacElrath, Respect Life Coordinator 779-7130

GRADUATES RECOGNIZED:

In June, we recognize in the bulletin all those graduating in our parish community: for those in Catholic school, high school, college or graduate school please call the parish office, 424-3212, so we can include your name in the bulletin.

CONGRATULATIONS to the following parishioner who has graduated: Jonathan Cole, graduated from Bishop Eustace Prep and will be attending Franklin & Marshall.

Is that smoke I see? Smokers, please be sure to extinguish your cigarettes and place them in the proper receptacles, not the flower beds.

Thanks!

Six Ways I Can Make My Parish Better

Third in a Series

3. Use your gifts and talents for the good of the parish. God has given each person unique gifts and talents that are intended to be shared. Like public speaking? You might get involved as a lector. If you're friendly and outgoing, you could be an usher or greeter. You can share your deep devotion to the Eucharist by becoming an Extraordinary Minister of Holy Communion or an adult altar server. If you play an instrument or sing, the music ministry might be the place for you.

Maybe you're a teacher and could help in Religious Education; if you love children, you could assist in the babysitting room. Any expertise—business, finance, public relations, photography, grant writing, engineering, carpentry, building maintenance, cooking, baking, cleaning, gardening—can find a place in the parish.

Maybe your greatest gift is time; if you're already an Extraordinary Minister, you can take communion to the sick and homebound. Or you can help with your parish outreach ministry to the poor.

You might even have an idea for a new ministry, support group, organization or event, and your enthusiasm and energy could help other people get excited and involved.
