Stewardship Reflection: 29Th Sunday in Ordinary Time: Faithful Stewardship

... "be persistent whether it is convenient or inconvenient..."
2nd Timothy 4:2

It is not always convenient to be a good Steward, especially when all the temptations of our busy and materialistic world get in the way. Now add our own pride and ego into the equation and living a Stewardship lifestyle may be downright uncomfortable! Remember, God didn't call us to be comfortable. He called us to be faithful.

Fr. Phillip Johnson

Reflections on professing, praying, thinking, and living the Faith of the Church

Praying Every Day: The Habit of Love

Many Christians, many Catholics, want to pray more—more often, more regularly, more fervently. They sense that there is an experience of prayer that they are missing. But when they pray, the heart is dry, the mind is distracted, the will is weak. If this describes you, give thanks to God and pray that he will intensify this sense of failure! This place of defeat and disappointment is a blessed starting point. The closest disciples of Jesus (who were, after all, devout Jews who had been praying their whole lives), asked Jesus: “Teach us to pray” (Luke 11:1). And St. Paul wrote: “We do not know how to pray as we ought, but the Spirit himself intercedes for us with sighs too deep for words” (Rom 8:26). Part of the meaning of those mysterious words is that your desire to pray is itself already a prayer, and God is already listening.

But we must also set out to learn to discipline our lives for prayer, to seek help from the wealth of the Catholic tradition concerning the “practice” of prayer. My thoughts about how to do that reflect my own struggles with prayer.

“Pray Without Ceasing” (1 Thess. 5:17) . . .

The saints and spiritual teachers have meditated much on this injunction of St. Paul: pray unceasingly. The most common interpretation is that our hours and days should be constantly punctuated by brief inner cries or exclamations or thanksgivings to God. In this “practice of the presence of God” (Brother Lawrence), all our thoughts and actions, our joys and sorrows, become moments of communion with God. This is the way of prayer described by St. Therese of Lisieux in her autobiography: “For me, prayer is a surge of the heart; it is a simple look turned toward heaven, it is a cry of recognition and love, embracing both trial and joy.”

Prayer “Hours” – Saying Our Prayers . . .

This constant “surge” toward God is foundational to prayer, but it is also necessary to sanctify our time, establishing a regular discipline of prayer—just as we establish times to eat, times to wake up, to go to work or school. It is important not to be too ambitious; the “hour” of prayer may sometimes be only a twenty-minute span. But you will have to be painfully honest with yourself, asking the uncomfortable question: what must change in my daily routine in order to make room for prayer? It may mean rising earlier; it may mean skipping that shopping trip; it may require shutting off the TV or computer in time to pray before going to bed.

In the ceaseless moment-by-moment turning to God, prayer is fed by desire and emotion. But “saying my prayers” is first of all an act of obedience. Don't expect “holy feelings” to always attend your prayer. The new obedience is an acknowledgement, inscribed in the new ordering of your life, that you have been called by your baptism to pray, to seek communion with God through your own most personal initiative. And we must be patient, as obedience becomes a holy habit of love—love of God and for those for whom you pray.

But what do I actually do and say during the designated time of prayer? That will be the question for an upcoming reflection.

Small Christian Community Faith Sharing

Please note that we put the following week's Gospel passage in this space so you can prepare all week for Proclamation of the Gospel the following Sunday. Faith Sharing helps ordinary people connect their faith with everyday life experiences.

Excerpt from the Gospel for the Thirtieth Sunday in Ordinary Time, October 23rd, 2016 Luke 18: 9 –14

Jesus addressed this parable to those who were convinced of their own righteousness and despised everyone else. "Two people went to the Temple area to pray; one was a Pharisee, the other was a tax collector. The Pharisee took up his position and spoke to himself, 'O, God, I thank you that I am not like the rest of humanity—greedy, dishonest, adulterous—or even like this tax collector. I fast twice a week, and I pay tithes on my whole income.' But the tax collector stood off at a distance and would not even raise his eyes to heaven but beat his breast and prayed, 'O, God, be merciful to me a sinner.' I tell you the latter went home justified, not the former, for whoever exalts himself will be humbled and the one who humbles himself will be exalted."

Commentary

Most of us grew up seeking rewards for "a job well done." Most of us enjoy the affirmation of a pleasant reward at the end of a hard week. Is it surprising that we want the same affirmation from God that we're doing a good job keeping the commandments and following the rules of life? But the truth is: we don't have to seek God's approval. We're already loved beyond imagination, and forgiven beyond reason. All we have to do is what the humble tax collector did: admit that we are sinners. That won't make God mad. It makes us eligible for God's mercy.

Questions for Reflection and Sharing:

1. What is God saying to me in this Gospel passage?
2. What word or phrase in this Gospel speaks to me?
3. What word or phrase in the Commentary resonates with me?

Early feminist leaders were opposed to legalizing abortion since they realized abortion is nothing more than a safety net for irresponsible men. Abortion does nothing to make women equal to men. In fact, abortion hurts women, and kills their babies and destroys future generations of Americans. Pray and work to end abortion.

House of Charity Bishop's Annual Appeal Employee Giving Campaign

Did you know the House of Charity is a donor choice for many Employee Giving Campaigns?

Many businesses will begin their Employee Giving/ United Way campaigns to solicit donations through the Fall months. This will give us an opportunity to direct our donations to the charities that best represent our beliefs, interests and social concerns. Ask your employer for a pledge card and be sure to:

In the Donor Choice Section, designate the "House of Charity"

Ask to be acknowledged! This ensures our parish will receive credit toward our new House of Charity goal.

If the agency requests a code for your donor choice... these codes may be found on the House of Charity website under "Employee Giving Campaign" and in the Catholic Star Herald. Your donation to our House of Charity helps to build, support and maintain many programs, ministries and services throughout our parishes and communities. These programs save lives and build futures. Thank you so much for your past, present and future support of our House of Charity fundraising campaign.

 We are still trying to meet our 2016 House of Charity goal If you have made a pledge, please remember to stay current with your payment. Or, if you haven't made a pledge, there is still time!***
