THIRD SUNDAY OF LENT MARCH 19, 2017

PARISH MISSION & VISION STATEMENTS

Mission (Purpose)

Through the Sacrament of Baptism, we the Catholic Community of St. Thomas More respond to our call to holiness.

Vision (Goals)

Empowered by Baptism, inspired by the Holy Spirit, and formed by the Word of God and the Sacraments, especially the Eucharist, we live out our Mission by working together:

- To structure prayerful, vibrant, participatory, Sunday worship experiences.
- To provide Life Long Faith formation for all age levels.
- To care for the young, the old, the sick, the hurting and the needy, both inside and outside our parish.
- To promote faith sharing, prayer, support, learning and listening to one another as a model for nourishing and sustaining our faith community.
- To welcome back, with hospitality, those who have left our faith community.

VISITATION AND ANOINTING OF THE SICK

Please call the parish office, 424-3212, if a family member is seriously ill or facing/recovering from surgery and would like to see a priest or receive the Anointing of the Sick. Holy Communion is also available to those who are homebound on an ongoing basis.

SACRAMENT OF BAPTISM

Please make arrangements for Baptism in advance through the parish office. Parents and godparents are required to attend a preparatory session.

MARRIAGE

Couples planning to marry will attend a marriage preparation program called Living in Love. Call office for appointment.

RCIA

The Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults is a process of formation for full initiation into the Catholic Church. It is open to those never Baptized; those baptized in another faith; and Catholics who have not received First Holy Communion and Confirmation.

For more information, please contact Sister Ann Byrnes, RSM, Pastoral Associate, 424-3212 ext. 104.

RCIA Team: Sister Ann Byrnes and John Mohan

Soup and Scripture

6:00 pm March 22nd, 29th and April 5th in the St. Thomas More Hall.

Join us for simple and delicious homemade soup suppers with a brief meditation on the Holy Scriptures. We are looking for volunteers to make and share their favorite homemade soups. For meal planning purposes, and to coordinate soup making schedules, we ask that you please call the Parish Office if you are planning to attend 424-3212.

"... if My people, who are called by My Name, are sorry for what they have done, if they pray and obey me and stop their evil ways, I will heal their land."

2nd Chronicles 7: 14

The collection for Sunday, March 12, 2017 was $9,262.00 from 184 donors.

As always, thank you for your generosity to our parish.

Stewardship Reflection: Third Sunday of Lent God-centered Stewardship

"Everyone who drinks this water will be thirsty again."
John 4:13

Jesus reminds us that material things, even something as basic as water, can never satisfy us for long. When we build our lives around material things, we always want more. True Joy and Peace only comes when we follow Jesus; when through our Stewardship, we become more God-centered and less self-centered.

THE CATHOLIC FAITH IN IN SLOW MOTION (No. 92)

Fr. Phillip Johnson

Reflections on professing, praying, understanding and living the Faith of the Church

“Our Father”

In Lent we are once again offered the opportunity to intensify our prayer, to enter more deeply into the mystery of prayer – maybe even to receive the life of prayer as if for the first time, as a little child (Mark 10:14-16). “What will I give up for Lent?” the traditional question goes. Remember, the giving up is for the sake of receiving all that God wants to give us. Once again we pray, “Lord, teach us to pray.”

“Jesus was praying in a certain place, and when he ceased one of his disciples said to him, 'Lord, teach us to pray' (literally, “give us a prayer”). “And he said to them, 'When you pray, say: Our Father in heaven . . .’” (Lk 11:1-2; Matt 6:9-13). This particular address, “Our Father,” is no longer a shock. Millions assume that “Father” is a universal and generic way of speaking to God, perhaps an obvious synonym for “God”. So the first thing we need to know in receiving this prayer from Jesus is its specific origin in the Christian revelation. The eternal creator condescends to be addressed by us as “Abba, Father” (Gal. 4:6). This is anything but a universal religious truism. As the Liturgy teaches us, it is only “formed by divine teaching, and at the Savior's command [that] we dare to pray” the Our Father.

Whose Father?

The primary relationship with which the gospel is concerned is not the one between Jesus and his followers, but rather the relation between Jesus and the One he alone addresses as “My Father” (Matt. 26:39 ff; John 14:1-7). In drawing the disciples to himself Jesus desires to give them his own relationship to his Father. He longs to share with them his own “spirit of Sonship” (Gal. 4:6). Jesus desires to include us in his own love for the Father, and in the Father's love for him. Just so, when Jesus places on our lips his Abba, Father, he is giving us infinitely more than a devotional formula to memorize. He is offering us his own intimacy with his Father; he is drawing us into the ceaseless “conversation” between the Father and the Son.

Praying Within the Divine Love . . .

“No one knows the Son except the Father, and no one knows the Father except the Son, and anyone to whom the Son reveals him” (Matt. 11:27; see also John 1:18). Christ never leaves you to pray on your own. When you pray his prayer, he is always praying in you and with you, sharing with you his intimacy with his Father. For it is only through the Son that we can know the Father. At the same time, when you pray “Our Father” in unison with Jesus, the Father is showing you the Son. He is revealing to you how to pray and to live as a child of the Father.

So it is that to pray in faith, “Our Father”, is to be held by Grace within the never-failing exchange of love between Jesus and his Father.

Within the “frame” of the Our Father is revealed everything you ever need to pray for yourself or for another. The whole prayer-life of the Church on earth and in heaven is included within this prayer of the Son, Who lives and reigns with the Father, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, One God, forever and ever.

THIRD SUNDAY OF LENT MARCH 19, 2017

Small Christian Community Faith Sharing

Please note that we put the following week's Gospel passage in this space so you can prepare all week for Proclamation of the Gospel the following Sunday. Faith Sharing helps ordinary people connect their faith with everyday life experiences.

Excerpt from the Gospel for the Fourth Sunday of Lent, March 26, 2017 - John 9:1-41

Jesus said to the man once blind, "Do you believe in the Son of Man?" The man answered and said, "Who is he, sir, that I may believe in him?: Jesus said to him, "You have seen him, and the one speaking with you is he." The man said, "I do believe, Lord," and he worshipped him. Then Jesus said, "I came into this world for judgment, so that those who do not see might see, and those who do see might become blind."

Commentary:

It's no crime to wake up one day and realize you've been oblivious to a great truth about yourself. What IS a crime is never to wake up and make that discovery. The wise folks we know got that way by walking a while on the path of humility, encountering brutal truths about themselves all along the way. They've confronted their own blindness many times, and surrendered to the sometimes-painful procedure of having their sight restored again and again. Being human implies a limited perspective. We don't see perfectly, and we have to keep working at clarifying our vision. Honest relationships assist that process naturally. So does surrendering to the words of Scripture and the sacraments most deliberately. Confession helps. The only thing that harms us, frankly, is refusing to see.

Questions for Reflection and Sharing:

1. What is God saying to me in this Gospel passage?
2. What word or phrase in this Gospel speaks to me?
3. What word or phrase in the Commentary resonates with me?

"A political society endures when it seeks, as a vocation, to satisfy common needs by stimulating the growth of all its members, especially those in situations of greater vulnerability or risk."

Pope Francis address to the Joint Session of Congress, Sept. 24, 2015.
