- To care for the young, the old, the sick, the hurting and the needy, both inside and outside our parish.
- To promote faith sharing, prayer, support, learning and listening to one another as a model for nourishing and sustaining our faith community.
- To welcome back, with hospitality, those who have left our faith community.

Stewardship Reflection: 3rd Sunday of Easter
Stewards Listen

“Did not our hearts burn within us while He talked to us along the road while He opened to us the Scriptures?” Luke 24: 32

How often do we take the time to discern what Jesus wants from us? Are our prayers always petitions, asking Jesus to do things for us? If so, that’s a one-sided relationship. Living our faith means developing a personal relationship with Jesus. Just like any friendship, there is give-and-take, each side listening to the other and helping each other out. Take time in silence as a Christian Steward to listen to what Jesus is asking of you.

Small Christian Community Faith Sharing

Please note that we put the following week’s Gospel passage in this space so you can prepare all week for Proclamation of the Gospel the following Sunday. Faith Sharing helps ordinary people connect their faith with everyday life experiences.

Excerpt from the Gospel for the Fourth Sunday of Easter, May 7, 2017 - John 10:1-10

The sheep hear the voice of the shepherd as he calls his sheep by name and leads them out of the sheepfold. When he has driven out all his own, he walks ahead of them, and the sheep follow him, because they recognize his voice. But they will not follow a stranger; they will run away from him, because they do not recognize the voice of strangers.

Commentary:

Today is Good Shepherd Sunday, which is also World Day of Prayer for Vocations. It’s a good day to reflect on what religious leadership is and what it should be for the future. What makes a leader someone who gets your attention, respect, and cooperation? How many such leaders do you know? And most of all, if good leadership seems rare to you, what are you prepared to do to fill the gap? Many people are ready to complain about poor leadership in government, church, and family life, but if we are not prepared to exercise better leadership right where we are, in the context of our present relationships, then our criticism begins to sound a little hollow. Pray for the gift of strong and wise leaders. Pray for the grace to discern who they are. And pray most of all this day to grow into the role of leadership already assigned to you where you live, work, and pray.

Questions for Reflection and Sharing:

- 1. What is God saying to me in this Gospel passage?
2. What word or phrase in this Gospel speaks to me?
3. What word or phrase in the Commentary resonates with me?

“Compassion for the mother is extremely important, but is never served through destroying the innocent.

Abortion kills children, injures mothers and destroys the family.

World Day of Prayer for Vocations May 7, 2017

“...In the depths of their heart, all missionary disciples hear this divine voice bidding them to “go about”, as Jesus did. I have mentioned that, by virtue of baptism, every Christian is a “Christopher”, a bearer of Christ, to his brothers and sisters. This is particularly the case with those called to a life of special consecration and with priests, who have generously responded, “Here I am, Lord, send me!” With renewed missionary enthusiasm, priests are called to go forth from the sacred precincts of the temple and to let God’s tender love overflow for the sake of humanity. The Church needs such priests: serenely confident because they have discovered the real treasure, anxious to go out and joyfully to make it known to all...” Pope Francis 2017 message for World Day of Prayer for Vocations.

Pray for vocations to the Priesthood and Religious Life.

A room full of chatter, laughter and happy people, meeting new people– triplets, no less!-, at the same time doing a Corporal Work of Mercy. That was the setting in the St. Thomas More Room on Wednesday, April 19th as we made 429 sandwiches and almost 500 utensil packages. Thank you all: setter-upper, sandwich and utensil package makers, delivery persons, cleaner uppers. And, of course, the Sklencars who fund this mission. We break for the summer and hope to see you on September 20th, October 18th & November 15th at 9:30am.
