PARISH MISSION & VISION STATEMENTS

Mission (Purpose)

Through the Sacrament of Baptism, we the Catholic Community of St. Thomas More respond to our call to holiness.

Vision (Goals)

Empowered by Baptism, inspired by the Holy Spirit, and formed by the Word of God and the Sacraments, especially the Eucharist, we live out our Mission by working together:

- To structure prayerful, vibrant, participatory, Sunday worship experiences.
• To provide Life Long Faith formation for all age levels.
• To care for the young, the old, the sick, the hurting and the needy, both inside and outside our parish.
• To promote faith sharing, prayer, support, learning and listening to one another as a model for nourishing and sustaining our faith community.
• To welcome back, with hospitality, those who have left our faith community.

VISITATION AND ANOINTING OF THE SICK

Please call the parish office, 424-3212, if a family member is seriously ill or facing/recovering from surgery and would like to see a priest or receive the Anointing of the Sick. Holy Communion is also available to those who are homebound on an ongoing basis.

SACRAMENT OF BAPTISM

Please make arrangements for Baptism in advance through the parish office. Parents and godparents are required to attend a preparatory session.

MARRIAGE

Couples planning to marry will attend a marriage preparation program called Living in Love. Call office for appointment.

RCIA

The Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults is a process of formation for full initiation into the Catholic Church. It is open to those never Baptized; those baptized in another faith; and Catholics who have not received First Holy Communion and Confirmation.

For more information, please contact Sister Ann Byrnes, RSM, Pastoral Associate, 424-3212 ext. 104.

RCIA Team: Sister Ann Byrnes and John Mohan

Do you want Babies in the Womb protected by Society and the Law?

Information Night, 7:00 pm Thursday, June 8th, Our Lady of Guadalupe Parish, in the Chapel, located in the school across the street from St. Lawrence Church, Lindenwold.

Come to hear about the '20/20 Project', an exciting new Pro-Life initiative that's got hundreds of individuals and many ministries in NJ working together to protect babies in the womb. RSVP to MaryAnn Chezik at machezik@gmail.com or 609-707-1725.

The collection for Sunday, May 21, 2017 was $7802.00 from 173 givers. As always, thank you for your generosity to our parish.

'... if My people, who are called by My Name, are sorry for what they have done, if they pray and obey me and stop their evil ways, I will heal their land.' 2nd Chronicles 7: 14

Stewardship Reflection: 7th Sunday of Easter Prayerful Stewardship

'I am praying for them...' John 17:9a

Prayer is the foundation of our Faith and the foundation of Stewardship. Pray in good times and in bad. Prayer is always the first best option in any situation, not just the last resort. Pray for friends and family and for those that don't treat you very well. Pray to give praise, to thank and to ask God for help. Pray to see what God wants you to do with the gifts He has given you.

Reflections about professing, praying, thinking, and living the Faith of the Church

The Ascension of Our Lord

In the opening chapter of The Acts of the Apostles, St. Luke writes:

He [the Risen Christ] presented himself alive to the apostles by many proofs after he had suffered, appearing to them during forty days and speaking about the kingdom of God. . . . When they had gathered together they asked him, “Lord, are you at this time going to restore the kingdom to Israel?” He answered them, “It is not for you to know the times or seasons that the Father has established by his own authority. But you will receive power when the Holy Spirit comes upon you, and you will be my witnesses. . . to the ends of the earth.” When he had said this, as they were looking on, he was lifted up, and a cloud took him from their sight (Acts 1:3, 6-9).

Forty Days . . .

One of the appearances of the risen Jesus turned out to be his last. During forty days the risen Jesus appeared to his apostles and other disciples. He established their faith and restored them to his fellowship. He taught them to understand the Holy Scriptures. He gave them their mission and established Peter as shepherd of his flock. He then was visibly “lifted up”, says St. Luke. Enshrouded by a cloud, he was “taken from their sight”. The Gospels make plain that this was a definitive “departure”. “As he blessed them, he “parted from them (literally, 'he exited') and was taken up into heaven” (Luke 24:51). They were no longer to expect his appearances to continue. His presence with them would be in a new and different way.

The Man Jesus . . .

Jesus, Mary's Son, born in Bethlehem and raised in Nazareth, ascended. That is to say, the Ascension is not to be understood as a “spiritual” abandonment of his truly human existence. The ascension is not an undoing of the Incarnation, in which the Eternal Son of God “became flesh and dwelt among us” (John 1:14). It is in his risen humanity that he ascends to the Father's “right hand in the heavens” (Eph. 1:20). The apostles will continue to address him in prayer and praise by his human Hebrew name. He is “the one Mediator, the man Christ Jesus” (1 Tim. 2:5). And “at the Name of Jesus every knee shall bow and every tongue confess that Jesus Christ is Lord (Phil. 2:11). Our Lord does not cease to be our brother.

Why is this truth so important? Because it is our humanity that he came to share. It is our human nature that he “takes with him” into heaven. It is a truly human “place” he is preparing for us (John 14: 2, 3). For what is heaven? Heaven is the place where God and his human creatures can dwell together.

Love Ascended: The Marks of the Cross . . .

You will remember that in his appearances over forty days, the Risen Jesus confirmed his identity to his disciples by showing them the signs of his suffering. The risen Christ was still marked by the signs of his self-offering on the Cross. It is a great blessing that Christian art has preserved this striking memory in depicting the Ascension—that Jesus ascends with the marks of the nails and the spear and the thorns. He is ever the Ascended Crucified one. His resurrection and ascension are indeed his victory over the cross, but he does not leave the cross behind. Rather, the signs of his suffering love are lifted up as the means of the world's salvation. In heaven he is forever known as the “lamb slain from the foundations of the world” (Rev. 13:8). And this is our salvation, that the long-suffering sacrificial love of God now rules eternally “at the right hand of the Father”.

PARISH RELIGIOUS EDUCATION

Religious Education Re-registration for the 2017–2018 School Year is now in progress. All children must register, even those in last year’s program.

Note: First Reconciliation and First Eucharist require a two year preparation. Children must attend Religious Education for one year prior to preparing to celebrate 1st Reconciliation and 1st Eucharist. Formal Religious Education should begin in the first grade.

We need a 3rd grade and a 4th grade (Tuesdays 4:30—5:45pm) and (2) 7th grade (Tuesdays from 6:30—7:45 pm) catechists. To be a catechist requires commitment, enthusiasm for learning and teaching, and for sharing our Catholic faith. If these wonderful traits describe you, you are off to a great start. Training is required and will be provided. Interested? Email Miriam Gilbert—Coordinator of Religious Education (CRE) at miriamgilbertcre@gmail.com

Liturgy of the Word for Children will resume in September!

Memorial Day

Heavenly Father, On this Memorial Day, we pray for those who courageously laid down their lives for the cause of freedom. May the examples of their sacrifice inspire in us the selfless love of Your Son, our Lord Jesus Christ.

Bless the families of our fallen troops, and fill their homes and their lives with Your strength and peace. In union with people of goodwill of every nation, embolden us to answer the call to work for peace and justice, and thus, seek an end to violence and conflict around the globe.

We ask this through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Looking for all Graduates! Please email Katie where you (or your child) are graduating from and your future plans. We would like to recognize and pray for you throughout June!

House of Charity Bishop's Annual Appeal 2017 continues.....

Our House of Charity-Bishop's Annual Appeal 2017 goal is $117, 880. We will need the help of all parishioners to meet and exceed this goal. We have received gifts totaling $97, 806 from 182 givers. Thanks to all who have contributed. We are still accepting donations to meet our Parish goal. To make a pledge, please pick up a Pledge card which is available in the gathering space and at the entrances to the Church and mail in or drop off at the parish office.

Every donation moves us closer.

Small Christian Community Faith Sharing

Please note that we put the following week’s Gospel passage in this space so you can prepare all week for Proclamation of the Gospel the following Sunday. Faith Sharing helps ordinary people connect their faith with everyday life experiences.

Excerpt from the Gospel for Pentecost Sunday, June 4, 2017 - John 20:19-23

On the evening of that first day of the week, when the doors were locked, where the disciples were, for fear of the Jews, Jesus came and stood in their midst and said to them, “Peace be with you.” When he had said this, he showed them his hands and his side. The disciples rejoiced when they saw the Lord. Jesus said to them again, “Peace be with you. As the Father has sent me, so I send you.” And when he had said this, he breathed on them and said to them, “Receive the Holy Spirit. Whose sins you forgive are forgiven them, and whose sins you retain are retained.”

Commentary:

Imagine that you’re home at night, the door locked, the day’s responsibilities safely tucked away until tomorrow. Into the room walks Jesus. You don’t know how he got there, but you know it’s he. “Peace be with you,” he says. As well he might, since you’re about ready to jump out of your skin. Then he delivers these not entirely-comforting operating instructions: “As the Father has sent me, so I send you.” That’s sort of what you were afraid he’d say, to be honest. You’ve read the book so you already know where the Father sent him. And yes, the book has a happy ending or you wouldn’t be standing here having this conversation with the Risen Lord. Do you have enough trust to put your hand in the hand of a man marked deep with sacred wounds? He’s waiting for your answer.

Questions for Reflection and Sharing:

1. What is God saying to me in this Gospel passage?
2. What word or phrase in this Gospel speaks to me?
3. What word or phrase in the Commentary resonates with me?

Regarding abortion and euthanasia:
“There is nothing less at stake than America’s future. You and I have the ability, the dignity, and the right to make our own decisions and to determine our own destiny; with God’s help we will do what’s right for our children, and for our beloved America. Choose to protect all life.

Al MacElrath, Respect Life Coordinator 779-7130

Father’s Day Cards/Remembrances

Father’s Day Cards and Remembrance Envelopes are available in the Gathering space. The cards are for the living and the envelopes should contain the names of all those to be remembered. You may put your envelope with donation and the list of all names to be remembered in the Collection basket. All those envelopes will be placed on the altar and prayed for during Masses the month of June.

Care Giving is Pro-Life

by Bill Dodds

“ In the words of the Gospel, family caregivers like you are the light of the world, the city set on a mountain, the lamp placed on a stand where it gives light to all in the house (see Mt. 5:14 –16). Your love, compassion, dedication and hard work are testimonies to the value of human life.

Invitation to a Journey Called RCIA

Do you want to know more about the Catholic Faith? This invitation is open to those who are not baptized as well as those who are baptized in a Christian faith and wish to enter full communion with the Catholic Church. Perhaps you were baptized Catholic but never received First Eucharist or Confirmation. The RCIA process would prepare you for these sacraments. Please call Sister Ann, 424-3212 - ext. 104, to receive more information about the RCIA classes.

Please note:
On Memorial Day,
Monday, May 29th, there will be one Mass, celebrated at 9:00 am.
