- To structure prayerful, vibrant, participatory, Sunday worship experiences.
- To provide Life Long Faith formation for all age levels.
- To care for the young, the old, the sick, the hurting and the needy, both inside and outside our parish.

- To welcome back, with hospitality, those who have left our faith community.

Stewardship Reflection: 6th Sunday of Easter

“This is my commandment: love one another as I love you. No one has greater love than this, to lay down one's life for one's friends.” John 15: 12-13

Do you love Jesus? Do you consider Him your Friend? Jesus says that if we love Him we would be willing to offer whatever we have to Him, not because we want praise and glory, but simply because we love Him. Does your giving seem mechanical out of obligation or do you share freely out of love?

The Catholic Faith In Slow Motion (no.115)

Fr. Phillip Johnson

Professing, Praying, Thinking, and Living the Faith of the Church

The Ascension of Our Lord

St Luke, in the opening chapter of his Acts of the Apostles, writes this account of the Ascension.

He [the Risen Christ] presented himself alive to the apostles by many proofs after he had suffered, appearing to them during forty days and speaking about the kingdom of God. . . . When they had gathered together they asked him, “Lord, are you at this time going to restore the kingdom to Israel?” He answered them, “It is not for you to know the times or seasons that the Father has established by his own authority. But you will receive power when the Holy Spirit comes upon you, and you will be my witnesses. . . to the ends of the earth.” When he had said this, as they were looking on, he was lifted up, and a cloud took him from their sight (Acts 1:3, 6-9).

Forty Days . . .

One of the appearances of the risen Jesus turned out to be his last. During forty days the risen Jesus appeared to his apostles and other disciples. He established their faith and restored them to his fellowship. He taught them to understand the Holy Scriptures. He gave them their mission and established Peter as shepherd of his flock. He then was visibly “lifted up”, says St. Luke. Enshrouded by a cloud, he was “taken from their sight”. The Gospels make plain that this was a definitive departure. As he blessed them, he “parted from them” (literally, he exited) “and was taken up into heaven” (Luke 24:51). His disciples were no longer to expect his bodily appearances to continue. His presence with them would take a new and different form.

The Man Jesus . . .

Jesus, Mary's Son, born in Bethlehem and raised in Nazareth, ascended. That is to say, the Ascension is not to be understood as a “spiritual” abandonment of his truly human existence. The Ascension is not an undoing of the Incarnation in which the Eternal Son of God “became flesh and dwelt among us” (John 1:14). It is in his risen humanity that he ascends to the Father's “right hand in the heavens” (Eph. 1:20). The apostles will continue to address him in prayer and praise by his human Hebrew name, Jesus. He is “the one Mediator, the man Christ Jesus” (1 Tim. 2:5). And “at the Name of Jesus every knee shall bow and every tongue confess that Jesus Christ is Lord (Phil. 2:11). Our Lord does not cease to be our brother.

Why is this truth so important? Because it is our humanity that he came to share. It is our redeemed human nature that he takes with him into heaven. It is a truly human “place” he is preparing for us (John 14: 2, 3). For what is heaven? Heaven is the place where God and his human creatures can dwell together.

Love Ascended: The Marks of the Cross . . .

In his appearances over forty days, the Risen Jesus confirmed his identity to his disciples by showing them the signs of his suffering. His risen body was marked by the signs of his self-offering. It is a great blessing that, in depicting the Ascension, Christian art has preserved this striking memory. Jesus ascends marked with the signs of the cross. His Resurrection and Ascension are indeed his victory over the cross, but he does not simply leave the cross behind. The marks of his suffering love forever “identify” him. He is forever the “lamb slain from the foundations of the world” (Rev. 13:8). And this is our salvation, that his sacrificial Love rules eternally “at the right hand of the Father”.

For Our Children

Last class – May 8, 2018. Registrations for next year will be emailed to families within the next few weeks.

Today, Sunday, May 6, thirteen of our children receive Jesus for the first time in the sacrament of Holy Eucharist. To prepare for this event, we spend hours to try to explain the reality of the Eucharist. We teach our children that JESUS wants to live with us and remain with us always. The BREAD of the EUCHARIST we take as spiritual food, also becomes part of us physically. JESUS becomes Us. It is such a profound reality, too deep for us to fully understand. Sometime we misplace our emphasis by giving attention to clothing, parties, food, and it is all good because we need to celebrate the fact that JESUS comes to our children in HIS REAL PRESENCE. But JESUS needs to be at the center of it all. JESUS IS THE REASON FOR THE CELEBRATION.

We all need to pray for our children, all of them, across the ages and the grade levels. If we care for our children and we really want them to grow up “well rounded”, FAITH and JESUS can never be absent from our loving concern. And may we never become responsible for depriving them of receiving the Sacraments, especially the Eucharist, which we receive at MASS. We and they – need the REAL PRESENCE OF JESUS in our life.

May we all pray with the words that we taught our children for their First Eucharist.

“All that I am, all that I do, all that I’ll ever have I offer now to YOU. All that I dream, all that I pray, all that I’ll ever make, I give to you today. Take and sanctify these for Your honor LORD. Knowing that I love and serve You is enough reward.”

Small Christian Community Faith Sharing

Please note that we put the following week's Gospel passage in this space so you can prepare all week for Proclamation of the Gospel the following Sunday. Faith Sharing helps ordinary people connect their faith with everyday life experiences.

Excerpt from the Gospel for Seventh Sunday of Easter, May 13, 2018 - John 17:11-19

Lifting up his eyes to heaven, Jesus prayed, saying: "Holy Father, keep them in your name that you have given me, so that they may be one just as we are one. When I was with them I protected them...but now I am coming to you. I do not ask that you take them out of the world but that you keep them from the evil one. They do not belong to the world any more than I belong to the world. Consecrate them in the truth. Your word is truth.

Commentary:

As Jesus prepares to return to the Father, he consecrates the disciples (and us) to be his continuing presence in the world. Even though we are consecrated, we cannot avoid the tension between belonging to Christ and belonging to the world: we will be at odds with the world, but one with each other; we will be confronted with the evil one, but be protected from the evil one. In the midst of this tension we are assured of Jesus' love, prayer, and protection.

Questions for Reflection and Sharing:

1. What is God saying to me in this Gospel passage?
2. What word or phrase in this Gospel speaks to me?
3. What word or phrase in the Reflection resonates with me?

Pro-Life Corner: "All the wars ever fought, all the holocausts ever perpetrated, all the plagues that ever raged, all the bombs ever dropped, all the famines that ever laid waste to the
