TWENTY-EIGHTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME, OCTOBER 14, 2018

PARISH MISSION & VISION STATEMENTS

Mission (Purpose)

Through the Sacrament of Baptism, we the Catholic Community of St. Thomas More respond to our call to holiness.

Vision (Goals)

Empowered by Baptism, inspired by the Holy Spirit, and formed by the Word of God and the Sacraments, especially the Eucharist, we live out our Mission by working together:

- To structure prayerful, vibrant, participatory, Sunday worship experiences.
- To provide Life Long Faith formation for all age levels.
- To care for the young, the old, the sick, the hurting and the needy, both inside and outside our parish.
- To promote faith sharing, prayer, support, learning and listening to one another as a model for nourishing and sustaining our faith community.
- To welcome back, with hospitality, those who have left our faith community.

VISITATION AND ANOINTING OF THE SICK

Please call the parish office, 424-3212, if a family member is seriously ill or facing/recovering from surgery and would like to see a priest or receive the Anointing of the Sick. Holy Communion is also available to those who are homebound on an ongoing basis.

SACRAMENT OF BAPTISM

Please make arrangements for Baptism in advance through the parish office. Parents and godparents are required to attend a preparatory session.

MARRIAGE

Couples planning to marry will attend a marriage preparation program called Living in Love. Call office for appointment.

RCIA

The Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults is a process of formation for full initiation into the Catholic Church. It is open to those never Baptized; those baptized in another faith; and Catholics who have not received First Holy Communion and Confirmation.

For more information, please contact Sister Ann Byrnes, RSM, Pastoral Associate, 424-3212 ext. 104.

RCIA Team: Sister Ann Byrnes and John Mohan

Second Collection Next Weekend World Mission Sunday

“I invite all of us in this diocese to see World Mission Sunday as a special moment to live out the mission we share as God's children, the mission to bring the Gospel to the whole world. I encourage you to be a “voice for mission” through your prayers and the help that you are able to give in support...” Bishop Sullivan

The collection for Sunday, October 7, was $7,785.00 from 165 donors. We thank you for your consistent generosity.

“... if My people, who are called by My Name, are sorry for what they have done, if they pray and obey me and stop their evil ways, I will heal their land.”
2nd Chronicles 7: 14

To Be a Christian Steward– A summary of the US Bishops' Pastoral Letter on Stewardship

“As each one has received a gift, use it to serve one another as good stewards of God's varied grace.” 1st Pt. 4:10

What identifies a steward? Safeguarding material and human resources and using them responsibly are one answer; so is generous giving of time, talent and treasure. But being a Christian steward means more. As Christian stewards, we receive God's gifts gratefully, cultivate them responsibly, share them lovingly in justice with others, and return them with increase to the Lord.

The Catholic Faith In Slow Motion (no. 119)

Fr. Phillip Johnson

A series of reflections about professing, praying, thinking, and living the Faith of the Church

Who Is The Holy Spirit?

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of Life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, Who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified.

I believe in the Holy Spirit. With this profession, the Trinitarian “shape” of our faith is complete. Each of the three parts of the creed confesses faith in God: God the Father, God the Son, God the Holy Spirit—the One God who is a fellowship, a communion of three “persons” or identities.

The Lord, the giver of Life . . . Who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified. The Creed makes clear that the Holy Spirit we believe in is not simply some divine force or emanation from God, but is truly God. The Holy Spirit is clearly identified as the Lord, the giver of Life. When God gives the Holy Spirit, as in the Sacrament of Confirmation, God gives God. The Holy Spirit is the name of God when God is given as a gift to indwell the souls of human creatures.

By analogy, we know something about this kind of giving. Or, at least, we know a very distant likeness to it. You know about “giving yourself” to some cause or person. When you give yourself to another, it does not mean you cease being yourself. In fact, by giving yourself you become more and more yourself. But it means that the other person now possesses your love, your loyalty, your presence when needed. This is, as we said, a distant likeness; there is much un-likeness within the likeness. Our human self-giving is severely limited by our nature and by our sins. But God’s self-giving is limited by nothing except his infinite Love.

To whom does God give himself? The first answer is one of the strange surprises of our faith, and it may at first sound like nonsense. God gives himself to God! That is to say, the Father gives himself to the Son and the Son returns this self-giving wholly; and this mutual self-giving is the Holy Spirit.

Of course, we could not speak of God like this, we would know nothing of this mystery, except for Jesus. When the Word of God “became flesh and dwelt among us” (John 1:1-3), the eternal secret of God’s self-giving is enacted and disclosed in a human history. The gospel story is first of all a story of the self-giving love between Jesus and the one Jesus called Father—who is the one who calls Jesus “my Son, my Beloved” (Mark 1:11). The Father gives “all things” to the Son (Col. 1) —his loyalty, approval, authority, creative power, and redeeming love. And Jesus returns this gift to the Father without holding anything back. The Son’s loyalty to the Father is not broken even by a tortuous death; the Father’s loyalty to the Son is stronger than the grave. This mutual self-giving that makes them “one,” this mutual Father-Son exchange of love is named by the gospel, “the Holy Spirit.”

I believe in the Holy Spirit. I believe that the power of love and favor between Jesus and his Father has been revealed and poured out in human history, “adopting” you and me (Romans 8:15) into that shared love. I believe that the Father now loves me with the same Love that he has for his only begotten Son. Because the Son gives me a share in his own perfect love of the Father. I believe that this Spirit will shape my life more and more in the image of the Sonship of Jesus. I believe that this Holy Spirit will hold us all secure in the communion of the Father with the Son, now and forever— that “the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, and the love of God, and the communion of the Holy Spirit” will be with us always (2 Cor. 13:14).

For Our Children

A new Serenity Prayer

*“God, grant me the serenity
To accept the people I cannot change, which is pretty much everyone,
since I’m clearly not you, God,
at least not the last time I checked.*

*And while you’re at it, God,
please give me the courage to change what I need to change about myself,
which is, frankly, quite a lot, since, once again,
I’m not you, which means I’m not perfect.*

*It’s better for me to focus on changing myself than to worry about changing other people, who, as you’ll not doubt remember me saying,
I can’t change anyway.*

*Finally, give me the wisdom to just shut up whenever I think that I’m clearly smarter than everyone else in the room,
That no one knows what they’re talking about except me,
or that I alone have all the answers.*

*Basically, God,
grant me the wisdom
to remember that I’m not you.*

Amen.”

2018
National Disasters Collection
October 27/28, 2018

“The funds collected in this special appeal for 2018 Disasters will be used to support the efforts of Catholic Charities USA and/or Catholic Relief Services, the official relief agencies of the US Catholic Church, as they and their local agencies respond to immediate emergency needs for such necessities as water, food, shelter, and medical care and aid in long-term rebuilding and recovery efforts, and the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops for pastoral and reconstruction needs of the Church. Funds will be used in response to Hurricane Florence and any other natural disasters that occur this year (now including Earthquake and Tsunami in Indonesia).”

Catholic Strong is a campaign that owes much of its theme to Pope Francis' call on all of us to become Missionary Disciples. This concept he first broached in his 2013 Apostolic Exhortation, Evangelii Gaudium
(The Joy of the Gospel).

"The Joy of the Gospel fills the hearts and lives of all who encounter Jesus. Those who accept His offer of salvation are set free from sin, sorrow, inner emptiness and loneliness. With Christ, joy is constantly born anew. In this Exhortation, I wish to encourage the Christian faithful to embark on a new chapter of evangelization marked by this joy, while pointing out new paths for the Church's journey in years to come."

For more information, go to southjerseycatholicstrong.org or speak with your Pastor or a parish volunteer team member.

Eucharistic Ministers: Each Sunday
one Eucharistic Minister goes to the back of the Church to give Communion to anyone unable to come forward to receive. All those able to come forward are to come to the Priest or Eucharistic Minister in the front of the Church.

TWENTY-EIGHTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME, OCTOBER 14, 2018

Small Christian Community Faith Sharing

Please note that we put the following week's Gospel passage in this space so you can prepare all week for Proclamation of the Gospel the following Sunday. Faith Sharing helps ordinary people connect their faith with everyday life experiences.

Excerpt from the Gospel for the Twenty-Ninth Sunday in Ordinary Time, October 21, 2018 – Mark 10:35-45

Whoever wishes to be great among you will be your servant; whoever wishes to be first among you will be the slave of all. For the Son of Man did not come to be served but to serve and to give his life as a ransom for many. Jesus summoned them and said to them, "You know that those who are recognized as rulers over the Gentiles lord it over them, and their great ones make their authority over them felt. But it shall not be so among you. Rather, whoever wishes to be great among you will be your servant; whoever wishes to be first among you will be the slave of all. For the Son of Man did not come to be served but to serve and to give his life as a ransom for many.

Commentary:

If the Son of Man serves humanity to the point of death, those who follow in his way must also "be the slave of all." The greatness of discipleship is measured, not in terms of position in the community or glory in the kingdom, but by the extent to which the disciple resembles Jesus who serves and gives his life.

Questions for Reflection and Sharing:

1. What is God saying to me in this Gospel passage?
2. What word or phrase in this Gospel speaks to me?
3. What word or phrase in the Commentary resonates with me?

Pro-Life Corner: The words of the abortion debate are deceptive. Abortion is demanded as a right, but no one has a right to kill another. Please pray and work to end abortion today.

Ideas for Adoration

1. Pray for the Holy Father.
2. Pray for vocations.
3. Look at yourself. Count your gifts. Then thank Him.
4. Pray for the world.
5. Enjoy just being in His Presence.

Adoration is held every Friday in the Chapel after the 9:00 Mass until 12noon. All are welcome.

Many businesses will begin their Employee Giving Campaigns this month and continue to solicit donations through the fall months. Employee Giving/ United Way campaigns give us an opportunity to direct our donations to the charities that best represent our beliefs, interests and social concerns.

Ask your employer for a pledge card and be sure to:

- In the Donor Section, designate "House of Charity"
- Ask to be acknowledged. This ensures our parish will receive credit toward our House of Charity goal.
- If the agency requests a code for your donor choice...these codes may be found on the House of Charity website under "Employee Giving Campaign" and in the Catholic Star Herald.
- Send your completed form to the Parish Office.
