Through the Sacrament of Baptism, we the Catholic Community of St. Thomas More respond to our call to holiness.

To Be a Christian Steward– A summary of the US Bishops' Pastoral Letter on Stewardship Stewards of Creation

The Bible contains a profound message about the stewardship of material creation: God created the world, but entrusts it to human beings. Caring for and cultivating the world involves the following:

Joyful appreciation for the God-given beauty and wonder of nature;

Protection and preservation of the environment, which would be the stewardship of ecological concern.

Respect for human life— shielding life from threat and assault, doing everything that can be done to enhance this gift and make life flourish; and Development of this world through noble human effort – physical labor, the trades and professions, the arts and sciences. We call such effort "work". Work is a fulfilling human vocation.

The Second Vatican Council points out that, through work, we build up not only our world but the Kingdom of God, already present among us. Work is a partnership with God—our share in a divine human collaboration in creation. It occupies a central place in our lives as Christian Stewards.

For Our Children

ALL SAINTS DAY – Holy Day of Obligation –
Families are welcome with all their children of any age. Religious Education families are choosing a patron saint for their family and a child will speak about their choice of saints. We hope to make the holy day Eucharistic Celebration special and memorable.
Confirmation I Preparation meeting for Parents and 7th grade children, Sun., Nov. 4, 2018, after the 10:00 am Mass – Hall All parents and children are expected to be there.

Jesus' message in this Sunday's Gospel is all about the Two Great Commandments:
"To love God above all things and our neighbor as ourselves". We have heard this so many times, But, has it sunk into our soul and motivated to us to change? Not yet? What are we waiting for? What are our children learning from our example?
Do our words meet our actions? It is so easy to get caught in the groove. The groove isn't always comfortable, but we feel safe because we feel we might be able to hide from ourselves, from others and from God.
And we come up with all kinds of excuses why the groove is a good place to be. It is all about ME. But deep, deep inside, we all know that ... we need to get out of our groove, do what we need to do and put an end to all our excuses. Sr. Clare Sabini

Eucharistic Ministers: Each Sunday one Eucharistic Minister goes to the back of the Church to give Communion to anyone unable to come forward to receive. All those able to come forward are to come to the Priest or Eucharistic Minister in the front of the Church.

Knights of Columbus

THIRTIETH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME, OCTOBER 28, 2018

Small Christian Community Faith Sharing

Please note that we put the following week's Gospel passage in this space so you can prepare all week for Proclamation of the Gospel the following Sunday. Faith Sharing helps ordinary people connect their faith with everyday life experiences.

Excerpt from the Gospel for the Thirty-First Sunday in Ordinary Time, November 4, 2018 – Mark 12:28-34

One of the scribes asked Jesus, "Which is the first of all the commandments?" Jesus replied, "The first is this: 'Hear, O Israel! The Lord our God is Lord alone! You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, with all your soul, with all your mind, and with all your strength.' The second is this: 'You shall love your neighbor as yourself.' There is no other commandment greater than these."

Commentary:

What is the purpose of God's law or commandments? The Pharisees prided themselves in the knowledge of the law and their ritual requirements. They made it a life-time practice to study the 616 precepts of the Old Testament along with the numerous rabbinic commentaries. They tested Jesus to see if he correctly understood the law as they did. Jesus startled them with his profound simplicity and mastery of the law of God and its purpose. What does God require of us? Simply that we love as he loves! God is love and everything he does flows from his love for us. God loved us first and our love for him is a response to his exceeding grace and kindness towards us. The love of God comes first and the love of neighbor is firmly grounded in the love of God.

Questions for Reflection and Sharing:

1. What is God saying to me in this Gospel passage?
2. What word or phrase in this Gospel speaks to me?
3. What word or phrase in the Reflection resonates with me?

Pro-Life Corner: Speak for those who cannot speak for themselves, God's precious unborn babies. We are not attempting to create any new laws; we just want the current laws against murder applied to all people. Born and unborn.

Why Adoration?

1. Jesus is counting on you because the Eucharist is the center of life. "Every member of the Church must be vigilant in seeing that the sacrament of love shall be at the center of the life of the people of God so that all the manifestations of worship due him shall be given back 'love for love' and truly become the life of our souls." Pope John Paul II, Redeemer of Man).
2. Your hour with Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament will repair for evils of the world and bring about peace on earth. "Let us be generous with our time in going to meet Jesus and ready to make reparation for the great evils of the world. Let your adoration never cease. (Pope John Paul II, Dominicae Cenae).

Adoration takes place in the Chapel every Friday from 9:30 am—12 noon. All are welcome!
