Saturday, December 8, 2018
The Immaculate Conception of the Blessed Virgin Mary is a Holy Day of Obligation.

Masses for this Holy Day are:

Friday, December 7th: 7:00 pm and
Saturday, December 8th: 9:00 am.

The Mass schedule for the Sunday obligation remains as usual: Saturday: 4:30pm; Sunday: 8:30, 10:00 & 11:30 am.

“... if My people, who are called by My Name, are sorry for what they have done, if they pray and obey me and stop their evil ways, I will heal their land.”
2nd Chronicles 7: 14

The collection for Sunday, November 25, 2018 was $7,335 from 174 givers. We thank you for your generosity to our parish.

Stewardship Corner “What I’m trying to do here is get you to relax, not be so preoccupied with getting, so you can respond to God’s giving. People who don’t know God and the way He works fuss over these things, but you know both God and how He works. Steep yourself in God-reality, God-initiative, God-provisions. You’ll find all your everyday human concerns will be met. Don’t be afraid of missing out. You’re my dearest friends! The Father wants to give you the very kingdom itself. Be generous. Give to the poor. Get yourselves a bank that can’t go bankrupt, a bank in heaven far from bank robbers, safe from embezzlers, a bank you can bank on. It’s obvious, isn’t it? The place where your treasure is, is the place you will most want to be, and end up being.” Luke 12: 29-34 (The Message translation)

Reflections on the Sacred Liturgy The First Sunday of Advent 2018

In the Old Testament, the greatest enemy of ancient Israel was not the Babylonians, or the Philistines, or the Persians. The greatest enemy of Israel was Israel herself, split between two kingdoms, Judah and Israel. Nonetheless, these kingdoms were united in their longing for the coming of the Messiah.

We hear this longing in our First Reading where Jeremiah foresees the Lord raising up a “just shoot” who “shall do what is right and just in the land.” This “just shoot” was the Israelites’ hope. But in time, when the Messiah did come, their waiting was not fulfilled in the way many had hoped. Unfortunately, their hopes had not been fixed on the Messiah whom God was sending, but instead on the Messiah whom they wanted to come. Here we can learn a first lesson regarding Advent and our own hopes of God. Consider what this lesson teaches us.

“A house divided against itself cannot stand.” This has been as true of the Church throughout the 2000 years of her history as it was of Israel. It has never been the Turks, or the Visigoths, or the Huns centuries ago—or the moral relativists, atheists, or materialists today—who posed or pose any real threat to the Church. All those worldly powers are doomed to pass away. The Church, and each of us as a member of the Church has nothing to fear from earthquakes, stars falling from the skies, or from any human beings who oppose what we believe,,,if Jesus Himself is the Messiah we are waiting for.

In today’s Gospel passage, Jesus does not tell us to be on guard against physical disasters, since all they can destroy are material things. Jesus instead says: “Be on guard lest your spirits become bloated with indulgence and drunkenness and worldly cares.” It’s ironic then, that as Jesus’ Church prepares for His coming at Bethlehem, the secular culture that surrounds us has gone into overdrive in tempting us to indulgence in sweets, food and drink, and material gifts.

God created us in His image and gave us a free will. Like Israel, we can use that free will to split ourselves in two: to give ourselves to the love of finite realities, while God calls us to love Him alone. By our freely chosen sins, we divide our selves in two, dividing the house where God wants to dwell by His grace. That house is not the Temple of Israel, but the body and soul of each member of the Mystical Body of Christ.

In contrast to the secular culture, then, how does Jesus’ Church call us to prepare for His coming at Bethlehem? During Advent, God calls us to unity through penance, which is to say, acts of self-denial. He calls us not only to the Sacrament of Penance, but also to the practice of penance, which is to say, acts of self-denial. Mortification—another term for the practice of penance— helps to bring integrity back to a divided house.

We tend to associate the practice of penance only with Lent, but it’s likely that we need it even more during Advent. After all, the constant temptation during these days before the Christmas Season is to focus on material things: To believe that material gifts satisfy what others most need in life, and to believe that the foods we prepare nourish what is most important within us.

Every mother knows that there is “penance”- trials and sufferings— that are built in to the birth experience of bearing an unborn child, not to mention giving birth and child-rearing. For this reason among others, then, Mary is a model during Advent of what it means to wait patiently, and to bear difficulties, for the sake of unity. The Messiah Who is coming wants to bring unity back into the life of each of us, and among all of us. Accepting the grace of unity, we can love God more whole-heart-edly, and serve our neighbor with an eye to greater communion among God’s children.

For Our Children

Sessions coming up: November December 4, 18; INTERGENERATIONAL ACTIVITY – Tuesday, December 18. 4:30 and 6:30 pm.

An intergenerational activity is the opportunity for families to participate in the activity at hand. It is an opportunity for our children/students to see Faith in Action. At the 4:30 session the children will present the Nativity Story, narrated and acted by them. At the 6:30 session the “Jesse Tree” will be presented. Confirmation I and II preparation classes will be held on December 2, at 11:00 am, lasting 90 minutes.

The media, the stores, the shopping folly do have an effect on us and we tend to get swamped in the madness of it all. It is hard, but not impossible, for us during this time of ADVENT in preparation for CHRISTMAS to create in our home an atmosphere of peace and joy and to restore the true spirit and meaning of Christmas. From our own Christian heritage, we can draw many traditions that will help in making real for our children and families the true meaning of this SEASON.

The world around us creates an illusory, misleading mindset. It is a hard task to offset it and yet it is the task before us.

JESUS IS THE REAL REASON FOR IT ALL.

FIRST SUNDAY OF ADVENT DECEMBER 2, 2018

Small Christian Community Faith Sharing

Please note that we put the following week's Gospel passage in this space so you can prepare all week for Proclamation of the Gospel the following Sunday. Faith Sharing helps ordinary people connect their faith with everyday life experiences.

Excerpt from the Gospel for the Second Sunday of Advent, December 9, 2018 – Luke 3:1-6

In the fifteenth year of the reign of Tiberius Caesar, when Pontius Pilate was governor of Judea, and Herod was tetrarch of Galilee ... during the high priesthood of Annas and Caiaphas, the word of God came to John the son of Zechariah in the desert. John went throughout the whole region of the Jordan, proclaiming a baptism of repentance for the forgiveness of sins, as it is written in the book of the words of the prophet Isaiah: A voice of one crying out in the desert: "Prepare the way of the Lord, make straight his paths. Every valley shall be filled and every mountain and hill shall be made low. The winding roads shall be made straight, and the rough ways made smooth, and all flesh shall see the salvation of God."

Commentary:

The First Sunday of Advent looks to the final coming of Jesus in glory at the end of time. The second and third Advent Sundays look to Jesus' first coming and feature John the Baptist as the first to announce Jesus' ministry. Luke introduces John with a list of all the political and religious leaders of the time. All these leaders hold power and reject Jesus, but God's call is greater than any opposition. John's message speaks to us as much as it did to the people of his time: Make a straight way for the one who is to come. Change your life and your attitude. Repent. Make room!

Questions for Reflection and Sharing:

1. What is God saying to me in this Gospel passage?
2. What word or phrase in this Gospel speaks to me?
3. What word or phrase in the Commentary resonates with me?

Pro-Life Corner: John the Baptist, while still in the womb of Elizabeth, recognized Jesus in the womb of Mary, and leapt for joy. This Advent season, may we recognize Jesus as our Savior and be open to His joy, peace and love.

How to pray a Holy Hour (pt. 1)

Three Suggestions:

1. Be Silent. Don't rattle prayers or silently review stresses. Be still exteriorly and interiorly.
2. Be Attentive. It's not simply a reading hour—a reading should be an entry-point to prayer.
3. Be Alert. Sit, stand, or kneel respectfully. Quick tip: if you get sleepy, stand up!

Adoration takes place in the Chapel every Friday from 9:30 am—12 noon. All are welcome!
