Convocation of Catholic Leaders

The Joy of the Gospel

“Let us try a little harder to take the first step and to become involved. Jesus washed the feet of his disciples. The Lord gets involved and he involves his own, as he kneels to wash their feet.” (No. 24)

The collection for Sunday, February 3, 2019 was $6850 from 161 donors. We thank you for your continued generosity to our parish.

“... if My people, who are called by My Name, are sorry for what they have done, if they pray and obey me and stop their evil ways, I will heal their land.”
2nd Chronicles 7: 14

Stewardship Quotes:

1. An authentic stewardship message requires that spiritual motivation be basic to financial giving. An Episcopal priest said it this way: We are talking about your relationship with God. Before we even mention the word money, we are going to talk about what it means to know you have life as a gift. What does it mean to know that everything you have is a gift? What does it mean to know that the whole world is a gift of a gracious God? So I'm aggressive about that as a way of saying, 'Do you know what I'm talking about? I'm not just asking you to give money. I'm talking about your spiritual life, which is what my job is.' So that's how I deal with asking people for money. (Dean Hoge)
2. If there be any truer measure of a man than by what he does, it must be by what he gives. (Robert South)
3. Even if I give the whole of my worth to Him, He will find a way to give back to me much more than I gave. (Charles Spurgeon)
4. All you have shall someday be given: Therefore give now, that the season of giving may be yours and not your inheritors. (Kahlil Gibran)

Workshop on Racism Tuesday February 5, 2019

Seventy participants attended the Workshop on Racism. Pictured here are the facilitators Sisters Cora Billings and Rose Martin (far left) with the students and faculty of Camden Catholic High School...

Prayer to End Racism

God of love and justice, St. Paul proclaimed that "there is neither Jew nor Gentile, neither slave nor free, nor is there male and female, for you are all one in Christ Jesus." May we be emboldened by your living Word to rid the world of the sin of discrimination in our attitudes and actions. Help us to seek the unity that Paul saw so clearly so that all forms of injustice will cease. Grant us the courage and determination to be prophets of peace. May we welcome one another as brothers and sisters, rooted in your everlasting love. Amen.

It is amazing how we can read scripture and each time find ever new messages, twists that touch us. In today's Gospel, Jesus took Peter and the other men by surprise. They had worked hard and they were not only tired but also disappointed. A night's hard work ended up with no profit. We all know how that feels. But Jesus had something else in mind for these men. He invited them to be a part of HIS mission. Did they get it? Not at that time! It is important for us to know and remember that from Baptism we are invited to share in Jesus' mission. We are to be a part of his work. We are invited, asked to help HIM in spreading HIS Gospel. We are like the MEN in the Gospel and we don't seem to get it either. The world is what it is because too many of us don't take JESUS' mission and invitation very seriously. IF and WHEN we will, we will see miracles as well. Let us teach our children to be missionaries in their own little world, so they can beat us to it in due time.

FIFTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME, FEBRUARY 10, 2019

Small Christian Community Faith Sharing

Please note that we put the following week's Gospel passage in this space so you can prepare all week for Proclamation of the Gospel the following Sunday. Faith Sharing helps ordinary people connect their faith with everyday life experiences.

Excerpt from the Gospel for the Sixth Sunday in Ordinary Time, February 17, 2019 – Luke 6:17, 20-26

And raising his eyes toward his disciples he said: "Blessed are you who are poor, for the kingdom of God is yours. Blessed are you who are now hungry, for you will be satisfied. Blessed are you who are now weeping, for you will laugh. Blessed are you when people hate you, and when they exclude and insult you, and denounce your name as evil on account of the Son of Man. Rejoice and leap for joy on that day! Behold, your reward will be great in heaven. For their ancestors treated the prophets in the same way. But woe to you who are rich, for you have received your consolation. Woe to you who are filled now, for you will be hungry. Woe to you who laugh now, for you will grieve and weep. Woe to you when all speak well of you, for their ancestors treated the false prophets in this way."

Commentary:

The "beatitudes" and "woes" in today's Gospel should be looked at together because they balance one another. The poor should not be too easily identified with a social class for the poor are not just the economically poor but also the lowly and oppressed who seek God's will. On the other hand, the rich are not condemned just because they are rich. But their riches can easily make them independent, not needing God or others. And they can begin to believe that they have a right to what they own, that they don't have to notice the poor around them. We are promised happiness and fullness, but we are challenged to keep ourselves humble and our lives simple. Jesus preaches poverty because poverty forces us to trust totally in God. We have to realize that the Kingdom holds the ultimate value.

Questions for Reflection and Sharing:

1. What is God saying to me in this Gospel passage?
2. What word or phrase in this Gospel speaks to me?
3. What word or phrase in the Commentary resonates with me?

Pro-Life Corner: People cry over animal abuse commercials, so why don't people cry for babies who are aborted? They are just as helpless as the animals, but they are humans – flesh and blood. Today's society has misguided sympathies.
