- To provide Life Long Faith formation for all age levels.
- To care for the young, the old, the sick, the hurting and the needy, both inside and outside our parish.

- To welcome back, with hospitality, those who have left our faith community.

Introducing the Revised Roman Missal

"The Confiteor"

Corinna Laughlin and D. Todd Williamson

At the very beginning of the liturgy, we prepare ourselves "to celebrate the sacred mysteries" by recalling our sinfulness, and asking the Lord for mercy. This part of the Mass is called the Penitential Act, which takes one of three forms. The first form is most commonly known as the Confiteor (the Latin word for "I confess," the first words of the prayer). The Confiteor is a communal statement in which we acknowledge our brokenness not only to God, but to the community, which is wounded by our sins. The revised English translation of the texts of the Mass brings some changes to this familiar prayer. We will say, "through my fault, through my fault, / through my most grievous fault," which faithfully translates the Latin text. The repetition is a poetic device, not unlike the litanies we pray at other points in the Mass (Kyrie, Lamb of God). These words are accompanied by the ritual gesture of striking the breast, an ancient sign of repentance. The emphasis is not on the magnitude of our sins, but on our personal responsibility for the evil that we do, and the good we fail to do. Through the Penitential Act, we recognize our weakness, and look with hope to the God who wants nothing more than to make us whole.

Saint Thomas More Women's Club

It has been more than 20 years since the Saint Thomas More Parish Women's Club began its journey on the path of promoting their own spiritual health and holiness as well as feeding the spirituality of the whole faith community.

The women in this club began their new journey together. It was the beginning of a long and happy journey of praying, socializing and supporting one another. They bonded and they grew as a strong force for goodness and solidarity in our parish.

Right at the founding of this group the transformation began. It began for the founding members. It began for their spouses. It began for their children. It began for their countless friends.

These ladies had a passion to promote a sense of belonging and a sense of connectivity with each other. They had a commitment to nurture the community life of our wider parish. They strive to help us along the path of life.

For the past two decades, this community of women has gone through some intense spiritual lessons and experiences in mind and soul. They have shared in each other's joys. They have tasted one another's losses. They have rejoiced in one another's celebrations.

These women have become great and trusted teachers to one another. They teach each other about caring for the self and caring for the family. They collectively care for the soul. They listen to one another's sage voices of compassion and sage voices of wisdom.

They have enabled one another to leave self-pity behind and to travel to the sacred place of the heart. And from one another they have heard the truth time and time again that lives in their souls and in their hearts.

They have joyfully taught one another with an intuitive touch and knowledge that comes from their souls. Their souls have been speaking to one another for one fifth of a century.

Their leadership roles and deeds of volunteerism are birthed in their souls. They continue to impact one another and indeed all of us. They are part of every aspect of parish life. They invest in the whole endeavor to deepen our connections with God and enhance our parish facilities and parish grounds.

They know how to have so much fun and so much laughter. Their reflections on God in their lives have deepened the journey. They trust in the presence of God. They trust in waiting even when it feels like absolutely nothing is happening.

Their reflections on the miracles in their lives have always brought a deepening and a hoping that can only be found in their small faith sharing moments. They continue to faith share over coffee and cake. They continue to unravel God in their lives.

They continue to nurture one another with their memories and their life experiences. They continue to deliver a message of joy and hope to so many. They continue to be a lamp for our feet.

All of these ladies who are registered members of the Saint Thomas More Women's Club exemplify the mission and vision of our parish. Their great spirit continues to touch and to heal all of us who are members of this wider and larger faith community of Saint Thomas More Parish.

With deep respect and gratitude,
Monsignor Morgan

Small Christian Community Faith Sharing

Please note that we put the following week's Gospel passage in this space so you can prepare all week for the proclamation of the Gospel the following Sunday.

Faith Sharing helps ordinary people connect their faith with everyday life experiences.

Excerpt from the Gospel for the Twenty-Seventh Sunday in Ordinary Time, Oct. 2, 2011 - Matt. 21:33-43

"The landowner sent his son to the tenants of his vineyard, thinking, 'They will respect my son.' But the tenants said to one another, 'This is the heir. Come, let us kill him and acquire his inheritance.' They seized him, threw him out of the vineyard, and killed him. What will the owner of the vineyard do to those tenants when he comes? They answered him, 'He will put those wretched men to a wretched death and lease his vineyard to other tenants who will give him the produce at the proper times.'"

Commentary:

In this parable of the vineyard, each element of the story has another meaning. The property owner represents God. The first group of slaves represents the prophets. They were sent by God to the people before the exile. The second group represents the prophets sent after the exile. Neither group had any good effect upon the people. Rather they were beaten, killed and stoned. When the owner sent his son (Jesus), they dragged him outside the vineyard (Jerusalem) and killed him also. The listeners to the parable were led to judge the tenants (themselves). Because Jesus had been rejected by the religious authorities, the Kingdom would now be given also to the Gentiles.

Questions for Reflection and Sharing:

1. What is God saying to me in this Gospel passage?
2. What word or phrase in this Gospel speaks to me?
3. What word or phrase in the Reflection resonates with me?
