Through the Sacrament of Baptism, we the Catholic Community of St. Thomas More respond to our call to holiness.

Vision (Goals)

Empowered by Baptism, inspired by the Holy Spirit, and formed by the Word of God and the Sacraments, especially the Eucharist, we live out our Mission by working together:

- To structure prayerful, vibrant, participatory, Sunday worship experiences.
- To provide Life Long Faith formation for all age levels.
- To care for the young, the old, the sick, the hurting and the needy, both inside and outside our parish.

- To welcome back, with hospitality, those who have left our faith community.

Principal: Mrs. Helen Persing

Come and dwell among us, O Lord, as we wait to celebrate the moment
when your Word became flesh.
Mary our Mother, pray for us and help us to follow your example
by saying 'yes' to what God asks of us.
Mary, your 'yes' to the Angel makes you a model disciple for us.
Help us to say 'yes' to God
even when we are tempted not to.

SCC Thank YOU

"A small Christian community is a face-to-face gathering of six to twelve people who invest time with one another for the common purpose of applying Gospel values to every aspect of their lives."

To everyone who participated in our Advent Small Christian Communities, a big Thank YOU!

What Does Christmas Truly Mean?

Dear Parishioners,

Merry Christmas to all!

The angel said to them, “Do not be afraid; for behold, I proclaim to you good news of great joy that will be for all the people. For today in the city of David a savior has been born for you who is Messiah and Lord. And this will be a sign for you: you will find an infant wrapped in swaddling clothes and lying in a manger.” (Lk. 2:10-12)

The mystery of the Incarnation is foremost what Christmas is all about. God became a man for us. The Word became flesh and dwelt among us. (Jn. 1:14) Timelessness entered into time. The almighty and all-powerful God became a helpless, vulnerable infant formed in the womb of a virgin. The creator of all life became subject to suffering and death. The infinite majesty of God became finite. God walked this very earth. He could be seen, felt and touched. He is the face of God for us to see.

Christ's humility should certainly be pondered as part of this mystery. Christ emptied himself (Phil. 11:5) and begins a hidden life in the womb of Mary. He has no royal palace and servants awaiting his birth but rather a stable. He was obedient to His parents and trusted in their care and protection as His life is threatened by Herod. He was forced to flee to a foreign land—Egypt. His life of sacrifice and humility will culminate in His suffering and death on a cross, like a common criminal.

Secularists, atheists, agnostics, pseudo-intellectuals and various irreverent comedians may deny, doubt or make fun of that which Christians believe as a central mystery of our faith: God became a man. Yet, this is truly what Christmas signifies.

Unfortunately, Christmas is all too frequently experienced as a once-a-year, get-nicely-dressed, go-to-church experience. It becomes a time for the family to join together and share an extravagant meal. It is anticipated as a nostalgic, sentimental, feel-good holiday in which multiple gifts are exchanged. While these limited perceptions are not necessarily bad, let's not miss one of the greatest acts of love ever given to humanity: For God so loved the world that He gave His only Son . . . (Jn. 3:16)

Christmas celebrates when Heaven touched Earth and the Love of God took human form. Christmas is when a baby—the Son of God and Son of Mary—is born for us in Bethlehem. Christmas is unmistakably and definitively about Christ—Jesus, the Christ, the anointed one, the messiah.

Christmas is a mystery that needs to be pondered regularly so that we can begin to examine all of its beauty—like a most magnificent gem. When you peer into the manger this Christmas, realize that before you is a glimpse of the love that God has for you by giving us His only-begotten Son.

On behalf of all of the priests that serve our parish, our sisters and staff, we wish you and your families a happy, holy Christmas and a blessed New Year! May the love of God which took human form in the person of Jesus be honored and revered in every human person that we meet.

After all, God became one of us.

Fr. Ed Namioŧka, Pastor

A Christmas with Jesus and with Pope Francis

On Christmas night, the angels lead the shepherds to a Baby born in a manger; they announced to them:

"I bring you good news of great joy for everyone! The Savior, yes, the Messiah the Lord, has been born tonight in Bethlehem," Luke 2:10"

"Littleness is the way to encounter God..." The shepherds in the manger are those who welcome God's surprise and live in wonder at their encounter with him, adoring him: in littleness they recognize the face of God," the Pope said.

"Awe and wonder are the two feelings that move everyone, young and old, before the Nativity scene, which is like a living Gospel overflowing from the pages of Holy Scripture," he wrote.

"Safeguarding the spirit of the Nativity scene becomes a healthy immersion in the presence of God manifested in the small, sometimes trivial and repetitive, everyday things," (From the book of Pope Francis: 'Christmas at the Nativity' – Nov.21, 2023)

MERRY CHRISTMAS AND..., A HAPPY ENCOUNTER WITH OUR LORD AND GOD JESUS, TO ALL OF US!

Eucharistic Revival Quotes from Pope Francis

“God knows how difficult it is, he knows how weak our memory is, and he has done something remarkable, he left us a memorial. He did not just leave us words, for it is easy to forget what we hear. He did not just leave us the Scriptures, for it is easy to forget what we read, He did not just leave us signs, for we can forget even what we see. He gave us Food, for it is not easy to forget something we have actually tasted. He left us Bread in which he is truly present, alive and true, with all the flavor of his love.. Receiving him we can say: ‘He is the Lord: he remembers me!’ That is why Jesus told us: “Do this in remembrance of me.” (1st Cor. 11:24)

FOURTH SUNDAY OF ADVENT, DECEMBER 24, 2023

Please note that we put the following week's Gospel passage in this space so you can prepare all week for Proclamation of the Gospel the following Sunday. Faith Sharing helps ordinary people connect their faith with everyday life experiences

Small Christian Community Faith Sharing

Excerpt from the Gospel for the Feast of the Holy Family of Jesus, Mary and Joseph, Dec. 31, 2023 – Lk:2-22-

40 "When the days were completed for their purification according to the law of Moses, they took him up to Jerusalem to present him to the Lord, just as it is written in the law of the Lord: "Every male that opens the womb shall be consecrated to the Lord, and to offer the sacrifice of a pair of turtledoves or two young pigeons, in accordance with the dictate in the law of the Lord. Now there was a man in Jerusalem whose name was Simeon. This man was righteous and devout, awaiting the consolation of Israel, and the Holy Spirit was upon him. It had been revealed to him by the Holy Spirit that he should not see death before he had seen the Christ of the Lord. He came in the Spirit into the temple; and when the parents brought in the child Jesus to perform the custom of the law in regard to him, he took Him into his arms and blessed God, saying: 'Now, Master, you may let your servant go in peace, according to your word, for my eyes have seen your salvation, which you prepared in sight of all the peoples, a light for revelation to the Gentiles, and glory for your people Israel.'"

Commentary:

The Gospel reading begins with the simple scene of a devout Jewish family obeying the Law. The holy man Simeon then meets them and says that this child will fulfill the hopes of Israel. Not only that, he will be a "revealing light to the Gentiles." One of Luke's dominant themes is salvation for everyone, Gentiles as well as Jews. This simple and strong description of the Holy Family concludes with their return to ordinary life in a small village.

Questions for Reflection and Sharing:

1. What is God saying to me in this Gospel passage?
2. What word or phrase in this Gospel speaks to me?
3. What word or phrase in the Commentary resonates with me?

Pro-Life Corner:

Merry Christmas from all of us to all of you!

Thank you for the gift of life!

A prayer for the Fourth Sunday of Advent

"Pour forth, we beseech You, O Lord, Your grace into our hearts that we, to whom the Incarnation of Your Son was made known by the message of an angel, may by His Passion and Cross be brought to the glory of His Resurrection. Who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, One God forever and ever."

Thank You for participating in Angel Tree

One and one-half million children under the age of 18 have a parent in the state or federal prison. What becomes of these children whose parents are not available. Often, they are left to emotionally fend for themselves as they are placed in protective services or in the care of a grandparent. The children go through a grieving process. They have difficulty in school and feelings of abandonment, guilt, shame, etc. They feel very much alone. Your donation to Angel Tree helps in many ways. The holidays are very difficult times for them, and your gift brings joy and a connection with their parent who is incarcerated.

Thank you to all who gave so generously of their time and talents to make our Christmas celebrations so joyous and memorable. To those who provided flowers, cleaned, decorated, prepared the altar, made the music so special at all the Masses, served at the altar: Altar Servers, Cantors, Choir, Extraordinary Ministers of the Eucharist, Greeters, Lectors, Musicians, Point Persons, Ushers we say:

THANK YOU!

May the Peace of the Christmas Season be yours always.
