PARISH MISSION & VISION STATEMENTS

Mission (Purpose)

Through the Sacrament of Baptism, we the Catholic Community of St. Thomas More respond to our call to holiness.

Vision (Goals)

Empowered by Baptism, inspired by the Holy Spirit, and formed by the Word of God and the Sacraments, especially the Eucharist, we live out our Mission by working together:

- To structure prayerful, vibrant, participatory, Sunday worship experiences.
- To provide Life Long Faith formation for all age levels.
- To care for the young, the old, the sick, the hurting and the needy, both inside and outside our parish.
- To promote faith sharing, prayer, support, learning and listening to one another as a model for nourishing and sustaining our faith community.
- To welcome back, with hospitality, those who have left our faith community.

VISITATION AND ANOINTING OF THE SICK

Please call the parish office, 424-3212, if a family member is seriously ill or facing/recovering from surgery and would like to see a priest or receive the Anointing of the Sick. Holy Communion is also available to those who are homebound on an ongoing basis.

SACRAMENT OF BAPTISM

Please make arrangements for Baptism in advance through the parish office. Parents and godparents are required to attend a preparatory session.

MARRIAGE

Couples planning to marry will attend a marriage preparation program called Living in Love. Call office for appointment.

RCIA

The Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults is a process of formation for full initiation into the Catholic Church. It is open to those never Baptized; those baptized in another faith; and Catholics who have not received First Holy Communion and Confirmation.

For more information, please contact Sister Ann Byrnes, RSM, Pastoral Associate, 424-3212 ext. 104.

CATHOLIC GRADE SCHOOL

St. John Paul II Regional School - (856) 783-3088
Principal: Mrs. Helen Persing

Father, you have given us Jesus to show us your face in our daily lives.
Open our eyes to the familiar and surprising ways that he heals and empowers us each day.
May your Holy Spirit help us to expel
all that is evil and impure in our lives,
all that is opposed to you and your ways.
This we pray through Christ our Lord.
Amen

“If my people, who are called by My Name, shall humble themselves, and pray, and seek My Face, and turn from their wicked ways; then will I hear from heaven, and will forgive their sin, and I will heal their land.” 2nd Chronicles 7:14

The collection for Sunday, January 21, 2024, was $7,024.00 The budgeted amount was $8500.

Like prayer, tithing is a kind of communication with the Lord, your God. It's a way for you to show that you know the value of your church; that through giving, you are remaining close to God and His teachings.

Do you need a ride to Mass? Are you willing and able to pick up a parishioner for Mass? St. Thomas More Parish is taking names for a new ministry. Please call the Parish Office if you need a ride. Please call the Parish Office if you are willing to pick someone up. for Mass. 856-424-3212.

Stewardship Corner: 4th Sunday in Ordinary Time Stewards Pray

“Brothers and sisters: I should like you to be free of anxieties.” - 1 CORINTHIANS 7:32

How much anxiety do we bring upon ourselves by constantly worrying about not having enough or attaining more things? God won't necessarily give you everything you want, but He will provide everything you need. Try this – use the word “pray” instead of the word “worry” in the future. Then, in Stewardship spend your time praying instead of worrying.

From the Pastor's Desk
Moral Correctness vs. Political Correctness

Dear Parishioners,

Unfortunately, we live in a politically correct world. The legacy news media and advertising often drives it. We have become so cautious not to offend anyone. We do not want to be cancelled. As a result, we may wind up compromising what we truly believe in the name of tolerance. There are rumblings among the populus, however, and ever-more people are becoming fed-up with what is going on.

What if the early Christians acted in the same manner? Would they have been so cautious not to proclaim Jesus is Lord in the face of torture and death? I think about how the early Apostles were willing to die rather than compromise their beliefs. How easy it would have been to acknowledge that Caesar was divine (as was demanded at the time), and go on living. Couldn't Jesus just be acknowledged as one god among many other gods? After all, the Greeks and Romans were polytheistic cultures and would more than likely tolerate one more god. It would be the politically correct thing to do at that time. Instead, the early Christians bravely faced torture and death in their unwavering proclamation that Jesus is the Risen Son of God. For them, there was no other option.

Today, we may not say certain things are objectively wrong for fear of offending someone:

Abortion is not killing an innocent human being—dare I say murder?—but a woman's choice.

Marriage (the permanent, exclusive, open-to children union between a man and a woman) is redefined not according to timeless, divine principles but as we enlightened humans currently see fit.

We don't call co-habitation fornication, but a trial-marriage.

Euthanasia (killing the elderly) is mercy-killing.

Adulterers are swingers.

The difference between partial-birth abortion and Infanticide is negligible.

Homosexual acts fall into the category of an alternate lifestyle.

Artificial contraception is never wrong or sinful in many people's mind.

There is no longer a proper understanding that we have a moral obligation to God to attend Mass weekly.

Wrong becomes right. Right is no longer right. The world is horribly confused. And this confusion does have serious, eternal consequences.

God in timeless wisdom and with apparently incredible patience looks at us and, I suspect, desires that we would listen and obey. There is a law written in your hearts. I sent you the prophets. I even gave you my only Son as my definitive Word. You have centuries of saints and martyrs witnessing to the truth by their lives. My gift of the Holy Spirit continues to guide the Church. Please listen. Don't delay.

I trust that God is all-merciful. There is frequently an emphasis on His mercy. I also believe that God is all-just. God's justice is tempered by His mercy. (See James 2: 12-13) Mercy is offered to us so that we admit our sinfulness, desire to change our erring ways and completely conform our lives to the teachings of Christ. Mercy is not like a get out of jail free card. We can't just continue with our sinful ways assuming God to be some pushover—some lenient parent—who will continually let us do whatever we want without consequences. We are all going to Heaven despite what we do here on earth. Not really. Why would Jesus have suffered and died in such a horrible manner if we all just go to Heaven no matter what we think, say or do? No, if we refuse mercy, if we refuse to listen, if we fail to change, then God remains all-just. We will get what we actually deserve. And it wasn't because God did not try to get through to us time and time again.

If political correctness blurs our moral correctness then I would suggest that we make the necessary adjustments to our thinking and acting. We need to realize that the truth—the objective moral teachings given by Jesus Christ and faithfully proclaimed by His Church—are the means given us for our eternal salvation.

And eternal does mean forever.

IF TODAY YOU HEAR GOD'S VOICE, HARDEN NOT YOUR HEART (Psalm 95)

It's the Third consecutive Sunday that the Lord is inviting us to a deeper relationship with Him with the Call of Samuel first, then the Call of his First Disciples and, on this Sunday, with the Psalm 95: "If Today You Hear God's voice, Harden Not Your Heart"!

Our Loving Lord never stops speaking to us wherever we are. He thirsts for us, for me! Let's listen to his strong appeal for friendship and for my personal love. Maybe I do want to be open to Him, but I do not know how. How to address Him. We may try by asking His help, by expressing our desire of him and telling Him our helplessness. This desire is already a gift to Him, it is already an answer to His appeal for my friendship with Him.

With patience and a constant listening to His Word, in all the different ways he tries to get in touch with us, we will find Him, His love, and the true joy we are looking for, and..., we will make Him happy too!!!!

FOURTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME, JANUARY 28, 2024

Please note that we put the following week's Gospel passage in this space so you can prepare all week for Proclamation of the Gospel the following Sunday. Faith Sharing helps ordinary people connect their faith with everyday life experiences

Excerpt from the Gospel for the Fifth Sunday in Ordinary Time, February 4, 2024- Mark 1:29-39

Jesus entered the house of Simon and Andrew with James and John. Simon's mother-in-law lay sick with a fever... approached, grasped her hand, and helped her up. Then the fever left her and she waited on them...He cured many who were sick with various diseases, and he drove out many demons...Rising very early before dawn, he left and went off to a deserted place, where he prayed..."Let us go to the nearby villages that I may preach there also. For this purpose have I come."

Commentary:

Jesus' ministry cannot be contained. The healing that begins with one woman expands to "all who were ill"; what begins in one home reaches out to the "whole town" and indeed, to "the whole of Galilee." The ministry and preaching of Jesus continues to expand through the proclamation of the gospel, the ministry of the disciples, and the work of the Church. As members of Christ's body (the Church), therefore, it is also our work to preach the gospel and reach out to all those who need healing.

Questions for Reflection and Sharing:

1. What is God saying to me in this Gospel passage?
2. What word or phrase in this Gospel speaks to me?
3. What word or phrase in the Commentary resonates with me?

Pro-Life Corner: "I tried to get my mind around the arguments from the so-called 'pro-choice' position. Most of them could seem very defensible from the surface. But when you dig just a little below the surface, you see how ridiculous these claims become. Taking a person's life is not 'health care.'"— Randy Smith, Pastor, and Founder of Christian Travel Study Programs

Urge Legislators to Expand Child Tax Credits

Last week Sen. Ron Wyden (D-OR) and Rep. Jason Smith (R-MO) announced a deal to expand Child Tax Credits as part of a legislative package that also includes business tax breaks. The bipartisan proposal would lift an estimated 400,000 children out of poverty. Please contact your representative to urge them to support The Tax Relief for American Families and Workers Act of 2024.
