EASTER SUNDAY OF THE LORD'S RESURRECTION, MARCH 31, 2024

PARISH MISSION & VISION STATEMENTS

Mission (Purpose)

Through the Sacrament of Baptism, we the Catholic Community of St. Thomas More respond to our call to holiness.

Vision (Goals)

Empowered by Baptism, inspired by the Holy Spirit, and formed by the Word of God and the Sacraments, especially the Eucharist, we live out our Mission by working together:

- To structure prayerful, vibrant, participatory, Sunday worship experiences.
- To provide Life Long Faith formation for all age levels.
- To care for the young, the old, the sick, the hurting and the needy, both inside and outside our parish.
- To promote faith sharing, prayer, support, learning and listening to one another as a model for nourishing and sustaining our faith community.
- To welcome back, with hospitality, those who have left our faith community.

VISITATION AND ANOINTING OF THE SICK

Please call the parish office, 424-3212, if a family member is seriously ill or facing/recovering from surgery and would like to see a priest or receive the Anointing of the Sick. Holy Communion is also available to those who are homebound on an ongoing basis.

SACRAMENT OF BAPTISM

Please make arrangements for Baptism in advance through the parish office. Parents and godparents are required to attend a preparatory session.

MARRIAGE

Couples planning to marry will attend a marriage preparation program called Living in Love. Call office for appointment.

RCIA

The Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults is a process of formation for full initiation into the Catholic Church. It is open to those never Baptized; those baptized in another faith; and Catholics who have not received First Holy Communion and Confirmation.

For more information, please contact Sister Ann Byrnes, RSM, Pastoral Associate, 424-3212 ext. 104.

RELIGIOUS EDUCATION

Grades One through Eight - Sunday 9:30 AM—10:45 AM

PARISH MEMBERSHIP

New members are welcome in our community of faith. Please call, 424-3212, or come to the parish

BULLETIN DEADLINE

Please submit hardcopy and/or e-mail by 2 p.m. Monday.

CATHOLIC GRADE SCHOOL

St. John Paul II Regional School - (856) 783-3088
Principal: Mrs. Helen Persing

Welcome to St. Thomas More!

We are delighted that you've chosen to celebrate Easter with us to commemorate the resurrection of our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ.

As we gather to celebrate this glorious day, let us reflect on the significance of the empty tomb and the victory over death that Easter represents. This victory is a promise of eternal life for all who believe. Let us offer a prayer of gratitude.

Dear Lord,

We come before You on this Easter morning with thankful hearts. We are grateful for the hope and new life that Easter brings. May our worship today be a fitting tribute to the resurrection of Jesus, our Redeemer. In Jesus' Name, Amen.

"If my people, who are called by My Name, shall humble themselves, and pray, and seek My Face, and turn from their wicked ways; then will I hear from heaven, and will forgive their sin, and I will heal their land." 2nd Chronicles 7:14

Viewing of the Film "The Letter"

On Monday April 22nd at 6:45PM in the Parish Meeting Room the Faith & Justice Team is showing the film "The Letter" which explores Pope Francis' 2015 encyclical Laudato Si'. This film is an address to all of humanity of the threatening impact our current lifestyle poses for our planet and all those living in it. Mark your calendar to attend!!

Stewardship Corner: Easter Sunday Living Stewardship

"Think of what is above, not of what is on earth." - COLOSSIANS 3:2

On this day we thank God for His Son, Jesus, who died, rose and opened the gates of heaven for us. We celebrate and sing "Alleluia." Let's try to keep the joy of this Easter season in our hearts throughout the year by living Stewardship. Pray daily and listen for how God is calling each of us to joyfully use our gifts to fulfill His salvation plan.

From the Pastor's Desk

What If?

Dear Parishioners,

What if there were no Easter Sunday? What if Jesus Christ did not rise from the dead?

Well, you certainly would not be reading this message from me. I suspect that I would probably be married with a family, engaged in some other kind of occupation. I certainly would not be a Catholic priest. Perhaps, a Jewish rabbi? Who knows?

There would be no Catholic churches. No Christian, Orthodox or Protestant churches as well. No Mass. No Eucharist. No sacramental Confession. No Christian Baptism. Any of the other sacraments? Nope.

Forget the Catholic schools, Catholic hospitals and Catholic orphanages. No Catholic charities. No Religious Orders like the Franciscans, Jesuits, Augustinians or Dominicans.

We would never hear those timeless Catholic hymns. No Gregorian chant. Tantum Ergo, O Salutaris, Pange Lingua, Stabat Mater . . . unfortunately, they would not exist. None of the great Christian-themed artwork that fills the rooms and walls of museums either.

No Communion of Saints. No need for Christian martyrs. No Gospels. No Evangelists. No Christian apologists.

Cities like San Francisco, Los Angeles, St. Louis, St. Paul and Santa Cruz, countries like El Salvador and San Marino, islands like St. Thomas, St. John and St. Martin would obviously have other non-Christian names.

No popes. No bishops. No organized hierarchy. No dioceses.

If we were fortunate enough to be Jewish, we would still be awaiting a messiah. Will God remember His promises to our ancestors? Will He send someone to save us?

If we were not Jewish, unfortunately, we might be worshipping some pagan god, not knowing any better.

Jesus of Nazareth would have been seen as some crazy, self-proclaimed messiah like a Jim Jones, David Koresh, Charles Manson, Sun Myung Moon or Marshall Applewhite, instead of Lord, God and Savior.

Would we have hope in eternal life without the Resurrection of Jesus? Would we have forgiveness of sin? Would the cross of Christ be just another Roman execution among many others?

“. . . And if Christ has not been raised, your faith is vain; you are still in your sins.” (1 Cor. 15: 17)

Fortunately for us, Jesus Christ is Risen! Our world will never be the same again—ever! We have hope and a promise of immortality—eternal life! We have the forgiveness of sin! We are given new life through Christ! Realize how blessed we truly are!

Jesus is Risen! Alleluia! Let Us feast In the Lord!

As God's people, every Sunday we gather together to worship, to joyfully celebrate the Resurrection of Jesus.

This solemn Event has to do something with our everyday life. Yes, in fact, our Christian life finds its source, power and meaning in the Resurrection of Jesus. Easter!!! What does this Easter Day really mean for us, for me, today? What is the connection of the Resurrection of Jesus to my very life?

Looking at Mary Magdalene in today's Gospel, we see her, early in the morning, the day after Sabbath, going to the tomb, to mourn yes, but also to bring gifts to her beloved Master and friend Jesus. But..., His body was not there; so, with much worry and anxiety she ran to tell Jesus' friends...

And..., where are we, now? What is it behind my empty tomb today, what kind of darkness, aspirations, worry or failure do I have within me that I can present in trust to the Lord in order to allow Him to see, to open my own tomb, my own heart so to experience His Presence anew, His very Life within me, his Light and the joy of His resurrection in me? May our new relationship with the Risen Jesus bring us that joy that overflows also in our relationships with others.

A blessed and a Happy Easter to all of us!!!

Pope Francis' Prayer Intentions April 2024 For The Role Of Women

Let us pray that the dignity and worth of women be recognized in every culture, and for an end to the discrimination they face in various parts of the world.

Eucharistic Revival quotes from Pope Francis

God makes himself tiny, like a morsel of bread. That is precisely why we need a great heart to be able to recognize, adore and receive him. God's presence is so humble, hidden, and often unseen that in order to recognize his presence, we need a heart that is ready, alert, and welcoming. But if our heart, rather than welcoming, is more like a closet where we wistfully keep things from the past; or an attic where we long ago stored our dreams and enthusiasm, or a dreary chamber filled only with us, our problems, our disappointments, then it will be impossible to recognize God's silent and unassuming presence. Homily—June 6, 2021

EASTER SUNDAY OF THE LORD'S RESURRECTION, MARCH 31, 2024

Please note that we put the following week's Gospel passage in this space so you can prepare all week for Proclamation of the Gospel the following Sunday. Faith Sharing helps ordinary people connect their faith with everyday life experiences

Excerpt from the Gospel for Second Sunday of Easter, Divine Mercy Sunday, April 7, 2024- John 20:19-31

On the evening of that first day of the week, when the doors were locked, where the disciples were, for fear of the Jews, Jesus came and stood in their midst and said to them, "Peace be with you." When he had said this, he showed them his hands and his side. The disciples rejoiced when they saw the Lord. ... Thomas was not with them when Jesus came. He said, "Unless I see the mark of the nails in his hands and put my finger into the nail marks and put my hand into his side, I will not believe." (Jesus appears to them again. This time Thomas is present. Jesus invites Thomas to see his wounds and to believe.) Jesus said to him, "Have you come to believe because you have seen me? Blessed are those who have not seen and have believed."

Commentary:

Thomas, who was absent when Jesus first appeared to the apostles in the locked upper room, refused to believe that the Lord has risen. Now, Jesus speaks to Thomas and tells him to examine his hands, etc. Thomas moves from unbelief to belief. Thomas saw and believed and new life was given to him. We who have not seen and have believed have also been given new life by God. The Spirit's presence within those who believe testifies that Jesus is the Son of God.

Questions for Reflection and Sharing:

1. What is God saying to me in this Gospel passage?
2. What word or phrase in this Gospel speaks to me?
3. What word or phrase in the Reflection resonates with me?

Nationwide Invitation to prayer

We ask Catholics to offer this prayer daily, from March 25th, through June when a decision from the Supreme Court is expected regarding chemical abortion. Thank you for responding to this invitation to prayer for an end to all abortions and for the protection of women and preborn children.

Dearest St. Joseph, at the word of an angel, you lovingly took Mary into your home. As God's humble servant, you guided the Holy Family on the road to Bethlehem, welcomed Jesus as your own son in the shelter of a manger, and fled far from your homeland for the safety of both Mother and Child. We praise God that as their faithful protector, you never hesitated to sacrifice for those entrusted to you. May your example inspire us also to welcome, cherish, and safeguard God's most precious gift of life. Help us to faithfully commit ourselves to the service and defense of human life—especially where it is vulnerable or threatened. Obtain for us the grace to do the will of God in all things. Amen.

Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ! According to his great mercy, He has caused us to be born again to a living hope through the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead" ~ 1 Peter 1:3
