FOURTH SUNDAY OF EASTER, APRIL 21, 2024

PARISH MISSION & VISION STATEMENTS

Mission (Purpose)

Through the Sacrament of Baptism, we the Catholic Community of St. Thomas More respond to our call to holiness.

Vision (Goals)

Empowered by Baptism, inspired by the Holy Spirit, and formed by the Word of God and the Sacraments, especially the Eucharist, we live out our Mission by working together:

- To structure prayerful, vibrant, participatory, Sunday worship experiences.
- To provide Life Long Faith formation for all age levels.
- To care for the young, the old, the sick, the hurting and the needy, both inside and outside our parish.
- To promote faith sharing, prayer, support, learning and listening to one another as a model for nourishing and sustaining our faith community.
- To welcome back, with hospitality, those who have left our faith community.

VISITATION AND ANOINTING OF THE SICK

Please call the parish office, 424-3212, if a family member is seriously ill or facing/recovering from surgery and would like to see a priest or receive the Anointing of the Sick. Holy Communion is also available to those who are homebound on an ongoing basis.

SACRAMENT OF BAPTISM

Please make arrangements for Baptism in advance through the parish office. Parents and godparents are required to attend a preparatory session.

MARRIAGE

Couples planning to marry will attend a marriage preparation program called Living in Love. Call office for appointment.

RCIA

The Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults is a process of formation for full initiation into the Catholic Church. It is open to those never Baptized; those baptized in another faith; and Catholics who have not received First Holy Communion and Confirmation.

For more information, please contact Sister Ann Byrnes, RSM, Pastoral Associate, 424-3212 ext. 104.

RELIGIOUS EDUCATION

Grades One through Eight - Sunday 9:30 AM—10:45 AM

PARISH MEMBERSHIP

New members are welcome in our community of faith. Please call, 424-3212, or come to the parish

BULLETIN DEADLINE

Please submit hardcopy and/or e-mail by 2 p.m. Monday.

CATHOLIC GRADE SCHOOL

St. John Paul II Regional School - (856) 783-3088
Principal: Mrs. Helen Persing

Lord, take me where you want me to go.
Let me welcome everyone who You wish me to greet.
Transform me to be a good shepherd
toward all whom I meet.
Guide me on the best way to pray.
May my words and actions express faith in every way.

Please join us Sunday, April 28th at the 11:00 AM Mass as we show our appreciation and thanks to Sr. Ann Byrnes, RSM.

Sr. Ann has served St. Thomas More Parish faithfully for 15 years. Her years of service to God and others are a wonderful witness to all of us. God has blessed us with her ministry.

The collection for Sunday, April 14th was $6,022.93. The budgeted amount was $8500.

"Giving is more than a responsibility—it is a privilege; more than an act of obedience—it is evidence of our faith." William Arthur Ward

"If my people, who are called by My Name, shall humble themselves, and pray, and seek My Face, and turn from their wicked ways; then will I hear from heaven, and will forgive their sin, and I will heal their land." 2nd Chronicles 7:14

Stewardship Corner: 4th Sunday of Easter Stewards Listen

"I am the good shepherd...and I lay down my life for the sheep...and they will heed my voice." - JOHN 10:14-16

When you pray, do you only ask Jesus for the things that you want? Do you ever ask Jesus what He wants from his Steward? How do you listen for His response? Many times, Jesus responds in "quiet whispers" that are not so obvious. So, take time every day, in silence, to actively listen for His voice.

From the Pastor's Desk

God's Grace

Dear Parishioners,

God's Grace is truly amazing to me. There are many ways of thinking about how God works in our lives. A realization of His life active and present in us is itself a gift.

I regularly see God at work during the ordinary experiences of my priestly ministry. Especially during Lent, on First Fridays and First Saturdays, and on many other occasions during the year, I have witnessed God bring forgiveness and healing to repentant sinners who were contrite and seeking God's mercy in the Sacrament of Penance. Christ was present to them. Whenever I go to the hospital or do a home visitation to offer the Anointing of the Sick to someone who is sick or dying, Christ is again present there bringing spiritual comfort, healing and forgiveness. When I go into the chapel and witness numerous parishioners spending time adoring Christ in the Blessed Sacrament after daily Mass, indeed believing in His true Eucharistic Presence, I see Christ with His people. I could go on and on with such examples.

If you look around, Christ continues to be present and to work among His people. He is true to His promise: . . . "And behold, I am with you always, until the end of the age." (Mt. 28:20) He was there at the wedding I witnessed last week. He is at each Mass that I celebrate, whether publicly or in private. He is here as I pray with or for someone who asks for my prayers. He will be here during Sunday's baptism. He is even there each time I have to face suffering and death.

People will sometimes tell me that they don't believe in God or that He doesn't seem real to them. Why does God's presence seem so real and obvious to me? It's not that I am some mystic or spiritual guru. I am just an ordinary person, an unworthy sinner like the rest of humanity called by God and graced with the gift of ordination despite my own unworthiness.

As you continue your spiritual journey during this Easter season, why not make a conscious effort to look for and to be attentive to God's Grace working in your life and in the lives of those around you? He is here with us in the poor, the suffering, the dying, the lonely, the young child, and the elderly. He is present in obvious ways and when we least expect it. He is present in the big events of life and in those quiet moments speaking to the depths of our hearts when we are alone in our inner room.

If you have a hard time perceiving Him, ask Him directly to remove any spiritual blindness from which you appear to be suffering. Fidelity to daily prayer is so essential in forming a relationship with Christ. A thorough sacramental confession can be the quickest and most direct way to experience His presence as healing, forgiveness and mercy enter into your life. And, of course, be aware that Christ is really and truly present (Body, Blood, Soul and Divinity) in the Holy Eucharist as the priest offers the Mass.

He is here with us—all around us!

Don't miss Him.

Fr. Ed Namiotka, Pastor

The Good Shepherd offers His life for His Sheep

The beautiful image of the shepherd with the sheep makes us recall at once the strong, loving and faithful relationship that he has with each one of his sheep, like a real treasure for him. The Lord Jesus, too, cares for each one of us, for our life, for our growth. We are really precious in His eyes! We belong to him! Like the shepherd does with his sheep, when he calls them by name, they, recognizing his voice, follow him. We, too, are called to listen to our Good Shepherd when He calls us by our unique name, to recognize his special voice and... to joyfully follow Him.

This week, it would be very helpful for our growth in Jesus, to recall some moments in our life in which we felt His call, His Presence or a kind of interior assuring Voice within us that gave us new strength, new life and a new Joy. Psalm 23 might help us to renew this special encounter with the Lord, for our joy and the joy of many the others too!!! Happy encounter!

Eucharistic Revival quotes from Pope Francis

"Jesus takes the bread into His hands and says 'Take, this is my body.' (Mark 14:22) With this gesture and these words He assigns to the bread a function which is no longer simply that of physical nutrition, but that of making his Person present in the midst of the community of believers." Angelus—June 7, 2015

FOURTH SUNDAY OF EASTER, APRIL 21, 2024

Please note that we put the following week's Gospel passage in this space so you can prepare all week for Proclamation of the Gospel the following Sunday. Faith Sharing helps ordinary people connect their faith with everyday life experiences

Excerpt from the Gospel for Fifth Sunday of Easter, April 28, 2024 - John 15:1-8

Jesus said to his disciples, "I am the true vine, and my Father is the vine grower... Remain in me, as I remain in you. Just as a branch cannot bear fruit on its own unless it remains on the vine, so neither can you unless you remain in me. I am the vine, you are the branches. Whoever remains in me and I in him will bear much fruit because without me you can do nothing."

Commentary:

The demands of being Christ's disciples are evident: we are told five times that we must "bear fruit." There is only one way to do this: by a relationship with Jesus so close and so intimate that we remain in him like a branch on a vine. Only his life in us enables us to bear fruit.

Questions for Reflection and Sharing:

1. What is God saying to me in this Gospel passage?
2. What word or phrase in this Gospel speaks to me?
3. What word or phrase in the Reflection resonates with me?

Pro-Life Corner:

"The pro-life cause is the pre-eminent cause of our time, and this struggle between the gospel of life and the culture of death will determine the destiny of mankind."— Peter Garrett, Member of the Australian House of Representatives

Members of the St. Vincent de Paul Society will be at the doors of the church this weekend accepting your donations of non-perishable food or money to purchase food. They are asking for: asking for canned vegetables, fruits and, soups; cereals, pasta and tomato sauce; peanut butter and jelly. Thank you for supporting the SVDP in their mission to 'feed the hungry.'

Strengthening the Church at Home

Strengthening the Church at Home

When you participate in the Annual Catholic Home Missions Appeal you make possible the development of priestly vocations in more than 70 other dioceses in the United States and its territories. The Home Mission Appeal is next weekend.

Economic Justice—Some Facts

All economic life should be shaped by moral principles. Economic choices and institutions must be judged by how they protect or undermine the life and dignity of the human person, support the family and serve the common good. A fundamental moral measure of any economy is how the poor and vulnerable are faring. The economy exists for the person not for the economy.—Principles of Catholic Social Teaching

A new billionaire is created every 2 days and they are paying lower tax rates that they have been in decades.

Meanwhile 10,000 people die each day because they can't afford healthcare.
