- To care for the young, the old, the sick, the hurting and the needy, both inside and outside our parish.

- To welcome back, with hospitality, those who have left our faith community.

Loving God,

We lift up in prayer all mothers, grandmothers, stepmothers and mothers-to-be.

We give you thanks for their fullness of love, talents, and gifts, which they share in our families, church, society, and the world.

Bless all the mothers every day of their lives.

May they always welcome Your loving presence and turn towards You in times of joy, sorrow, and glory.

We ask this in Your name,

Amen.

The collection for Sunday, May 5, 2024 was $8755.00. The budgeted amount was $8500.

"The one thing that surrounds everything else is that of stewardship; that we are the managers of everything that God has given us." Larry Burkett

Hats Off!

If you are graduating, or know of any other graduates who would like to be recognized for their achievement, please contact the Parish Office (856- 424-3212). We would love to celebrate with you!

"If my people, who are called by My Name, shall humble themselves, and pray, and seek My Face, and turn from their wicked ways; then will I hear from heaven, and will forgive their sin, and I will heal their land." 2nd Chronicles 7:14

Stewardship Corner: Ascension of Our Lord Stewardship Faith

"Whoever confesses that Jesus is the Son of God, God abides in him, and he in God." – 1 JOHN 4:15

How strong is your faith? When you have an opportunity to either defend or clarify a question about our Catholic faith, do you do it? Or, do you remain silent so that others don't think you are weird? Pray for the courage to be a strong Christian Steward in all circumstances and to joyfully share your witness with others.

From the Pastor's Desk
The Ascension, Mother's Day and Preparation for Pentecost

Dear Parishioners,

If you want my thoughts on the movement of Ascension Thursday to Sunday in the state of New Jersey, you can refer to my writing from last year (on my blog: fr-ed-namiotka.com) when the change officially occurred. Needless to say, I did not agree, then or now. People who live in the Archdiocese of Philadelphia, right over the Delaware River, were/are still obliged to the traditional day on Thursday. A bit of confusion for all, wouldn't you agree?

That being said, when Jesus ascended into heaven after His time on earth, he never abandoned us. He left us His Body and Blood in the Holy Eucharist. He remains in His words and teaching in the Sacred Scriptures. The ordained priest acts in His very person (in persona Christi) in the sacraments of the Church. He is present where two or three gather in His Name—community prayer, liturgy and worship, especially the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass. And, as God-Man, He continues to intercede for us at the right hand of the Father.

Our humanity is now elevated in Jesus' glorious Body and has entered Heaven. The fall and exile of Adam (original sin) is now reversed through the saving action of Christ, the new Adam. Heaven is open to us through Him. As He told us, no one comes to the Father except through Him (Jn. 14:6). This is what we celebrate today.

I also wish all mothers today a happy Mother's Day! For most people there is a special bond between mother and child. Our mothers carry us in their wombs for nine months. They endure the pangs of birth. They feed us, bathe us, clean up after us, teach us, comfort us, caress us and, most importantly, love us. How often they are willing to sacrifice for us!

Thanks moms for your strength, patience and ability to make things better by your calming and reassuring presence. Whenever we take you for granted or forget what you have done for us over the years, we apologize. You deserve better from us. We love you!

For those (like myself) who have lost their earthly mothers, please remember to pray for them and have Masses offered for them. Our faith teaches us, whether they are in purgatory or in heaven, they can pray for us! Let's aid them in getting to heaven by offering our prayers, Masses and sacrifices for them.

In addition to our biological (or adoptive) mothers, I think that it is also important to remember to honor Mary, our Spiritual Mother as well, especially in this month of May. We honor Our Lady as our Queen and Mother. She continues to intercede for her children here on earth and we place our confident hope and trust in her. Our Blessed Lady should play an essential role in the lives of Catholics and indeed all Christians. She was given to us as our mother through St. John at the foot of the cross:

When Jesus saw his mother and the disciple there whom he loved, he said to his mother, 'Woman, behold, your son.' Then he said to the disciple, 'Behold, your mother.' And from that hour the disciple took her into his home. (John 19: 26-27)

Finally, we enter into a period of preparation—originally, nine days of prayer or a novena—for the Holy Spirit at Pentecost. As the disciples prayed and awaited the promised Holy Spirit, so should we. The gift of the Holy Spirit to the Church transformed the lives of early Christians into true believers and bold witnesses to the risen Christ and His teaching.

One might see the obvious necessity of another outpouring of the same Holy Spirit for our times!

Fr. Ed Namiotka, Pastor

is a holiday observed in different forms throughout the world. It is a time to honor mothers, grandmothers, and great-grandmothers for their invaluable contributions to our families and society.

“For those whose mothers and grandmothers are still alive - cherish them today. Hug and kiss them. Honor them. Thank them.

For those whose mothers have gone home to the Lord, remember them.

For all who bear the name Christian, the name of our eternal family, let us also honor the MOTHER of the Lord today - our blessed Virgin Mary -. Her maternal care for Jesus still embraces all of us, all those who are joined to Him, as members of His Body, by that great new birth of Baptism”. (Catholic on line)

Many thanks for a successful year to the members of our Religious Education Program! Teachers, staff, students and parents, we appreciate your dedication to the religious education of all concerned. ### Eucharistic Revival quotes from

Pope Francis "Jesus prepares a place for us here below because the Eucharist is the beating heart of the Church. It gives her birth and rebirth; it gathers her together and gives her strength. But the Eucharist also prepares us for a place on high; in eternity for it is the Bread of Heaven. It comes down from heaven—it is the only matter on earth that savors of eternity. It is the bread of things to come; even now, it grants us a foretaste of a future infinitely greater than all we can hope for or hope to imagine. It is the bread that sates our greatest expectations and feeds our finest dreams. It is. In a word, the pledge of eternal life—not simply a promise but a pledge, a concrete anticipation of what awaits us there. Homily—June 3, 2018

THE ASCENSION OF THE LORD, MAY 12, 2024

Please note that we put the following week's Gospel passage in this space so you can prepare all week for Proclamation of the Gospel the following Sunday. Faith Sharing helps ordinary people connect their faith with everyday life experiences.

Excerpt from the Gospel for Pentecost Sunday, May 18, 2024- John 20:19-23

On the evening of that first day of the week, when the doors were locked, where the disciples were, for fear of the Jews, Jesus came and stood in their midst and said to them, "Peace be with you." When he had said this, he showed them his hands and his side. The disciples rejoiced when they saw the Lord. Jesus said to them again, "Peace be with you. As the Father has sent me, so I send you." And when he had said this, he breathed on them and said to them, "Receive the Holy Spirit. Whose sins you forgive are forgiven them, and whose sins you retain are retained."

Commentary:

Pentecost has popularly and rightly been called the "Birthday of the Church." We greatly reduce the mystery of God's presence, however, if we understand this phrase to refer to the beginning of the institutional church. Pentecost is our birth into new life as a new creation. It is our celebration of being God's redeemed people who now share in the mission of the divine Son through the Spirit. This is the great mystery we celebrate on this festival. Pentecost may be the end of the Easter season, but it is also a celebration of the beginning of our new life in Christ.

Questions for Reflection and Sharing:

1. What is God saying to me in this Gospel passage?
2. What word or phrase in this Gospel speaks to me?
3. What word or phrase in the Reflection resonates with me?

Pro-Life Corner: "The idea of a natural right is to preserve life, not to kill it; and a constitutional right cannot supersede the natural right to life."— Robert J. Spitzer, Author

May is Arthritis Awareness Month. Arthritis can be a very debilitating health condition that creates limitations such as: difficulties with moving and performing daily tasks as well as social and work limitations. Joint-friendly physical activity for people living with arthritis can help to ease arthritis pain and morning stiffness, improve joint flexibility and could improve overall mood.

Here are some tips:

Walking is a great option for exercise as it is a low-cost way to strengthen muscles and improve circulation and joint movement.

Gardening can help reduce stress and fatigue and help improve your mental health and quality of life.

Muscle strengthening can reduce arthritis pain, prevent muscle loss, and improve overall fitness. Lifting dumbbells or cans of food or using resistance bands can strengthen muscles.

Before you begin any form of physical activity, it's important you speak to your health care provider. Talk to your doctor about helping you find programs that ease you into physical activity and help you learn how to manage arthritis so you can live better with arthritis.
