PARISH MISSION & VISION STATEMENTS

Mission (Purpose)

Through the Sacrament of Baptism, we the Catholic Community of St. Thomas More respond to our call to holiness.

Vision (Goals)

Empowered by Baptism, inspired by the Holy Spirit, and formed by the Word of God and the Sacraments, especially the Eucharist, we live out our Mission by working together:

- To structure prayerful, vibrant, participatory, Sunday worship experiences.
- To provide Life Long Faith formation for all age levels.
- To care for the young, the old, the sick, the hurting and the needy, both inside and outside our parish.
- To promote faith sharing, prayer, support, learning and listening to one another as a model for nourishing and sustaining our faith community.
- To welcome back, with hospitality, those who have left our faith community.

VISITATION AND ANOINTING OF THE SICK

Please call the parish office, 424-3212, if a family member is seriously ill or facing/recovering from surgery and would like to see a priest or receive the Anointing of the Sick. Holy Communion is also available to those who are homebound on an ongoing basis.

SACRAMENT OF BAPTISM

Please make arrangements for Baptism in advance through the parish office. Parents and godparents are required to attend a preparatory session.

MARRIAGE

Couples planning to marry will attend a marriage preparation program called Living in Love. Call office for appointment.

OCIA

The Order of Christian Initiation of Adults is a process of formation for full initiation into the Catholic Church. It is open to those never Baptized; those baptized in another faith; and Catholics who have not received First Holy Communion and Confirmation.

Stewardship Corner:

27th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Stewardship Forever

"So out of the ground the Lord God formed every beast of the field and every bird of the air, and brought them to the man to see what he would call them; and whatever the man called every living creature, that was its name." (GENESIS 2:19)

The creation story reminds us of two important points. First, since the start, God has put the entire world into our care. Second, Stewardship has been around since the beginning of mankind, it isn't something recently invented by the Church. Just as past generations built our Church, it is now our responsibility to continue to nurture and develop these gifts for future generations.

From the Pastor's Desk

Thoughts from the Monastery

Dear Parishioners,

I recently returned from my retreat at the Trappist monastery, the Abbey of the Genesee, in western New York State. I spent the week with two of my priest-friends in an atmosphere of prayer and peaceful silence. I now share with you some of my personal observations and thoughts after this time away from the parish routine.

Temporarily leaving the world and entering the spiritual desert, you first begin to slow down from the pace of life with which we have become too familiar. The traffic, the lines in the grocery store, the crowds at sporting events, the constant need to do something, all cease when you enter a place of solitude like a monastery.

You experience silence. You can begin to hear yourself think. Even more importantly, you can hear God speak. The silence can sometimes be deafening, especially in the middle of the night. You stop hearing all of the man-made noise and begin to hear the birds and the crickets chirp, the bees buzzing, the wind blowing and acorns falling to the ground. You experience the night sky and the stars in a darkness away from the city lights.

God speaks to you. Whether it be in thought or imagination, in reading of the Scriptures or a spiritual book, in praying the rosary, in a moment of Eucharistic adoration or during the daily Mass, God is speaking ever-more loudly and clearly. He speaks particularly when the psalms are chanted by the monks throughout the day and night.

You begin a process of introspection. You examine your conscience. You think about what I have done and what I have failed to do. You prepare to meet God someday face to face. Sometimes the events of your life pass before you again and you get to see the mistakes you made and/or your proper decisions.

You think of and pray for those you promised to pray for, those who have asked for your prayers, those you should be praying for and even those who have no desire to pray. You pray for the living and the dead. You pray for your parishioners, past and present. You sometimes even may pray for your enemies and those who persecute you, have betrayed you, lied about you and hurt you. And you beg forgiveness from God if you have done such things to anyone else.

You confront your demons. Just as Jesus was tempted by the devil three times when He went into the desert, so temptations and the demons behind them may rear their ugly heads. It is at these times you realize that the spiritual battle continues and that the final victory in your life is far from achieved.

You may experience some dryness in prayer or moments when God seems extremely close and real. You may hear God urging the heart to something more or hear nothing at all.

Each time I have visited the monastery, God is there waiting and watching. Some may think that such a retreat is a waste of time and this time can be better spent in some other manner.

I beg to differ.

The Sunday Connection, by Loyola Press, provides useful background and activities to better understand the Sunday's Scripture readings, helping you to connect the Scripture to daily life in a meaningful way.

Family Connection

Jesus' teaching about divorce and remarriage can be a challenging one for many people. The Church continues to uphold the strong and positive teaching of Jesus that God intends for a man and woman to make a lifelong commitment to one another in the Sacrament of Marriage. Many of us, however, know people whose marriage has not been a lifelong commitment. The example of Jesus teaches us that we are called to act with compassion and love in our relationships with all, and especially when people are hurting because of difficulties in their relationships. Most importantly, we remember that when marriages thrive, it is a sign of God's grace at work.

As you gather as a family, talk about what it means to make a promise or a commitment to someone. Offer examples of promises that are fairly easy to keep and offer examples of promises that might be more difficult to honor. Read today's Gospel, Mark 10:2-16. Talk about how we need God to help us honor our commitment to love and care for each other. Jesus teaches that we should be like children before God, trusting God's promise to care for us. Conclude by praying together that God will give his grace and help so we may honor our commitments.

Pray together, Saint Ignatius of Loyola's prayer, the Suscipe.

*Take, Lord, and receive all my liberty, my memory, my understanding,
and my entire will,
All I have and call my own.
You have given all to me.
To you, Lord, I return it.
Everything is yours; do with it what you will.
Give me only your love and your grace, that is enough for me.*

Tuesday, October 8th The premiere of the film Heart of a Servant: The Father Flanagan Story (narrated by Jonathan Roumie)

See: <https://www.fatherflanaganfilm.com/>

Heart of a Servant reveals the full picture of Father Flanagan's life and the challenges he overcame to provide abandoned and orphaned children with an opportunity to thrive. He responded to the most pressing questions of his era regarding at-risk youth with answers that were blind to color or creed. His motto, "There are no bad boys. There is only bad environment, bad training, bad example, bad thinking," was beautifully displayed in the success of Boys Town.

TWENTY-SEVENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME, October 6, 2024

Please note that we put the following week's Gospel passage in this space so you can prepare all week for Proclamation of the Gospel the following Sunday. Faith Sharing helps ordinary people connect their faith with everyday life experiences.

Excerpt from the Gospel for the Twenty-Eighth Sunday in Ordinary Time, October 13, 2024– Mark 10:17-30

As Jesus was setting out on a journey, a man ran up, knelt down before him, and asked him, "Good teacher, what must I do to inherit eternal life?"...Jesus responded, "You know the commandments: You shall not kill, etc." The man said to Jesus, "Teacher, all of these I have observed from my youth." Jesus, looking at him, loved him and said to him, "You are lacking in one thing. Go, sell what you have, and give to the poor and you will have treasure in heaven; then come, follow me." At that statement, the man's face fell, and he went away sad, for he had many possessions.

Commentary:

Today's Gospel illustrates the frequent conflict between wisdom and wealth. The man who asked the secret of everlasting life was clearly a thoroughly good person. But Jesus senses in this man an attitude of not needing anyone else. Jesus tells him, in effect, "All the resources on which you rely are useless. Get rid of them, trust in God, and follow me." The challenge here was not to poverty as such, but to trust. Salvation is God's gift, not a reward for human efforts.

Questions for Reflection and Sharing:

1. What is God saying to me in this Gospel passage?
2. What word or phrase in this Gospel speaks to me?
3. What word or phrase in the Commentary resonates with me?

Pro-Life Corner:

"I Came So That They Might Have Life"

"When we meet Jesus in the Eucharist, this encounter has the power to change us. The Eucharist has the power to transform the depths of our hearts and the heart of our culture. United to the power of his Eucharistic Presence, may we work to ensure that each person has life-and has it in abundance.
