PARISH MISSION & VISION STATEMENTS

Mission (Purpose)

Through the Sacrament of Baptism, we the Catholic Community of St. Thomas More respond to our call to holiness.

Vision (Goals)

Empowered by Baptism, inspired by the Holy Spirit, and formed by the Word of God and the Sacraments, especially the Eucharist, we live out our Mission by working together:

- To structure prayerful, vibrant, participatory, Sunday worship experiences.
- To provide Life Long Faith formation for all age levels.
- To care for the young, the old, the sick, the hurting and the needy, both inside and outside our parish.
- To promote faith sharing, prayer, support, learning and listening to one another as a model for nourishing and sustaining our faith community.
- To welcome back, with hospitality, those who have left our faith community.

Congratulations

We welcome Roman Anthony Potts, child of Thomas and Colleen into the Saint Thomas More Parish faith community. It is always a wonderful day when children enter our Catholic faith through the waters of Baptism.

Stewardship Corner:

29th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Stewardship Service

*"For the Son of Man did not come to be served, but to serve and to give his life as a ransom for many."
(MARK 10:45)*

If you held a mirror up to your life, would it reflect God's love and mercy? If you are struggling with this, try changing your attitude from "I want more" to "thank you God for everything you have given me, I have enough to share". This change to Stewardship will bring you joy through service to others. Pray daily to become less self-centered and to become more God-centered.

From the Pastor's Desk

“How Did We Get Here?”

Dear Parishioners,

I recently heard our Coadjutor Bishop, Joseph A. Williams, speak about how he would attend daily Mass with his father. His father is a physician with a family of nine children, yet found time not only to attend Mass each Sunday but each and every day. God bless him!

Over the years I have heard hundreds, if not thousands, of the confessions of children whether it was in the Catholic school or in the religious education programs. I regularly try to put the children at ease and try to help them realize that God is a forgiving God, if only we request His mercy. I tell them that there is no sin God can't forgive, if we are truly sorry. My emphasis is on how merciful God is to all of us. I want this sacrament to be one in which children will never be afraid and will continue to keep a positive attitude toward it as they mature into adulthood.

Without going very long I usually begin hearing from the young children how they are “too busy” to go to Sunday Mass, that they “have sports on Sunday,” that their family “usually goes to Mass for Christmas and Easter” but not necessarily each week, and a whole bunch of similar comments. All this is unfortunately telling me that going to Mass each Sunday is far from a priority in many, many families. I dare not even mention Holy Days of Obligation—like the Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary into Heaven (August 15), All Saints Day, (November 1), or the Immaculate Conception of the Blessed Virgin Mary (December 8). Holy Days of Obligation are treated with an attitude of optional at best, similar to the overwhelming number of Catholics who think in similar manner about Sunday Mass attendance each week.

Let me answer a few questions directly. Do Catholics still have an obligation to attend Mass each week? (Yes) Has this requirement changed over the years? (No)

"Sunday . . . is to be observed as the foremost holy day of obligation in the universal Church." "On Sundays and other holy days of obligation the faithful are bound to participate in the Mass." (2192, CCC)

[Please refer to the Catechism of the Catholic Church (CCC) under the section on The Ten Commandments for a complete explanation.]

So what is a pastor to do? I certainly have an obligation before God for the spiritual well-being of my people. I care about them. I love them. I pray for them each day.

1) Maybe I can pretend that there is no problem. Just be silent and not bring up the topic. I will only alienate people further. (How much worse can it get? About four-fifths of the average parish is missing each Sunday already!?)

2) Maybe I can gently urge and try warmly to invite people. (Realistically, I have been attempting to do this almost every day of my priestly life. The results, unfortunately, have not been overwhelming.) 3) Should I preach hell, fire and damnation like the good, old days? (While I think that the Fear of the Lord is a much needed virtue for our times, most of society does not want to be told what to do—rarely, if ever.) 4) Should I go on trying to live and lead by example? Will my striving for personal holiness and my desire for conversion of life become contagious and lead people to Christ? (I can only hope and pray!)

Growing up as a child in the 60's and 70's was, in my humble opinion, a very crazy time. Free-love, the drug culture, Vietnam, the Cold War, unrest on college campuses, racial tension, etc. all seemed overwhelming to me as a kid. Yet, somehow God was present to me in the midst of it all. Despite the many adversities, I mysteriously heard the call to be Jesus' disciple. God could truly penetrate even the most difficult of situations—then and now. Just look at the cross. Didn't this, too, seem to be the worst of all situations? When I ask myself today “How did we get here?” as a culture and as a Church, I know deep down I must continue to trust that God is still in charge and in His plan for salvation good will ultimately triumph.

Please come to Mass each week. I will never stop asking (begging). I care about your eternal salvation much too much.

God speaks to us in many ways, including through the Sunday Scripture readings. The Sunday Connection, by Loyola Press, provides Sunday's Scripture readings, helping you to connect the Scripture to daily life in a meaningful way. Gospel Reading Mark 10:35-45

In the daily routine of family life, power struggles seem unavoidable. Today's Gospel can be an invitation to consider how authority is exercised in your household.

As you gather as a family, invite family members to participate in a role play in which family roles are reversed. For example, you might assign children the role of parents. You may have them role play parents asking for cooperation from children to clean up the family room.

When the role play is finished, ask if everyone cooperated when asked? What happens when someone doesn't cooperate? How are the conflicts resolved? Observe that conflicts based on power struggles in situations such as these seem unavoidable in family life. Talk with your family about ways in which you might apply Jesus' words in your family life.

Pray together the Peace Prayer of Saint Francis.

Lord, make me an instrument of your peace: where there is hatred, let me sow love; where there is injury, pardon; where there is doubt, faith; where there is despair, hope; where there is darkness, light; where there is sadness, joy. O divine Master, grant that I may not so much seek to be consoled as to console, to be understood as to understand, to be loved as to love. For it is in giving that we receive, it is in pardoning that we are pardoned, and it is in dying that we are born to eternal life. Amen.

TWENTY-NINTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME, October 20, 2024

Please note that we put the following week's Gospel passage in this space so you can prepare all week for Proclamation of the Gospel the following Sunday. Faith Sharing helps ordinary people connect their faith with everyday life experiences.

Excerpt from the Gospel for the Thirtieth Sunday in Ordinary Time, October 27, 2024 – Mark 10:46-52

...On hearing that it was Jesus of Nazareth, Bartimaeus, a blind man, began to cry out and say, "Jesus, son of David, have pity on me." And many rebuked him, telling him to be silent. But he kept calling out all the more, "Son of David, have pity on me." Jesus stopped and said, "Call him." So they called the blind man, saying to him, "Take courage; get up, Jesus is calling you." He threw aside his cloak, sprang up, and came to Jesus. Jesus said to him in reply, "What do you want me to do for you?" The blind man replied to him, "Master, I want to see." Jesus told him, "Go your way; your faith has saved you." Immediately he received his sight and followed him on the way.

Commentary:

The Lord hears the cry of the poor. When Jesus hears Bartimaeus crying out, he issues a call of his own. Jesus asks the man, "What do you want me to do for you?" His reply, "Master, I want to see," could become the daily prayer of every person of faith. When Jesus gives him his sight, and his freedom - "Go your way" - Bartimaeus chooses to go the way of Jesus. If we really see, where else would we want to go?

Questions for Reflection and Sharing:

1. What is God saying to me in this Gospel passage?
2. What word or phrase in this Gospel speaks to me?
