Second Sunday of Advent, December 8, 2024

PARISH MISSION & VISION STATEMENTS

Mission (Purpose)

Through the Sacrament of Baptism, we the Catholic Community of St. Thomas More respond to our call to holiness.

Vision (Goals)

Empowered by Baptism, inspired by the Holy Spirit, and formed by the Word of God and the Sacraments, especially the Eucharist, we live out our Mission by working together:

- To structure prayerful, vibrant, participatory, Sunday worship experiences.
- To provide Life Long Faith formation for all age levels.
- To care for the young, the old, the sick, the hurting and the needy, both inside and outside our parish.
- To promote faith sharing, prayer, support, learning and listening to one another as a model for nourishing and sustaining our faith community.
- To welcome back, with hospitality, those who have left our faith community.

VISITATION AND ANOINTING OF THE SICK

Please call the parish office, 424-3212, if a family member is seriously ill or facing/recovering from surgery and would like to see a priest or receive the Anointing of the Sick. Holy Communion is also available to those who are homebound on an ongoing basis.

SACRAMENT OF BAPTISM

Please make arrangements for Baptism in advance through the parish office. Parents and godparents are required to attend a preparatory session.

MARRIAGE

Couples planning to marry will attend a marriage preparation program called Living in Love. Call office for appointment.

OCIA

The Order of Christian Initiation of Adults is a process of formation for full initiation into the Catholic Church. It is open to those never Baptized; those baptized in another faith; and Catholics who have not received First Holy Communion and Confirmation.

For more information, please call 424-3212

RELIGIOUS EDUCATION

Grades One through Eight - Sunday 9:30 AM—10:45 AM

PARISH MEMBERSHIP

New members are welcome in our community of faith. Please call, 424-3212, or come to the parish

BULLETIN DEADLINE

Please submit hardcopy and/or e-mail by 2 p.m. Monday.

CATHOLIC GRADE SCHOOL

Prepare the way of the Lord. Make straight His paths."

During this Advent Season, how will you make a straight path for Jesus to enter more fully into your life? Are you preparing the way with the welcoming stepping stones of love, mercy, compassion, hope and faith?

Holy Day of Obligation—
The Immaculate Conception of the Blessed Virgin Mary will be celebrated on Monday, December 9, 2024.

All are obliged to participate in Mass.

Our Mass schedule is

9:00 AM and 7:00 PM in the Church.

Collection for Retirement Fund for Religious
This weekend December 7/8

Support those who have given a lifetime. Women and men religious have dedicated their lives to service—praying, teaching, and caring for those in need. Today their religious communities do not have enough retirement savings for the essential needs of thousands of senior women and men religious.

Please give to the Retirement Fund for Religious.

2nd Sunday of Advent

Live Stewardship

"And this is my prayer: that your love may increase ever more and more in knowledge and every kind of perception, to discern what is of value"
(PHILIPPIANS 1:9-10)

During the Christmas shopping season, it is easy to get caught up in the frenzy of buying gifts. But, is that "gift" truly an expression of your love for the other person. Or, are you just fulfilling your "obligation" to give them something? To live Stewardship and grow in friendship with someone, you need to spend time with them and learn what is of value to them. Maybe this year, buy less "stuff" and spend more time with those you love.

From the Pastor's Desk

An Upcoming Holy Day of Obligation

Dear Parishioners,

Among some Catholics and various others, there is still a misunderstanding regarding what is meant by the term (or title) Immaculate Conception. Some people mistakenly think that this title refers to Jesus and His being conceived miraculously in the womb of His Mother Mary. This is not the case.

In 1854, Pope Pius IX proclaimed the following in the Apostolic Constitution Ineffabilis Deus:

The most Blessed Virgin Mary was, from the first moment of her conception, by a singular grace and privilege of almighty God and by virtue of the merits of Jesus Christ, Saviour of the human race, preserved immune from all stain of original sin.

This proclamation was one of two notable times in more recent history of the Catholic Church when a pope declared an infallible dogma ex cathedra (that is, from the chair of St. Peter's teaching authority). The other occasion was the dogma of the Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary into Heaven.

Our catechism instructs us: "Through the centuries the Church has become ever more aware that Mary, "full of grace" through God, was redeemed from the moment of her conception. That is what the dogma of the Immaculate Conception confesses . . ." The Catechism of the Catholic Church, (#491). Mary was redeemed by Christ as all humanity is, but her redemption began at her very conception in the womb of her mother by a singular grace—hence, the term Immaculate Conception.

Around the same time as the pope, bishops and theologians were wrestling with this theological matter, Bernadette Soubirous was born in Lourdes, France in 1844. Saint Bernadette, as she is now known, is remembered for having received eighteen apparitions of the Blessed Virgin Mary between February 11 and July 16, 1858. Our Lady asked for a chapel to be built at a grotto in Massabielle where the apparitions occurred and a miraculous spring of water now flows. During these apparitions, Our Lady identified herself to St. Bernadette with the phrase "I am the Immaculate Conception." St. Bernadette, an illiterate peasant girl with no formal training in theology, had no idea what the phrase Immaculate Conception meant. She was only fourteen at the time of the visions. It seems that in these apparitions Our Lady herself confirmed what the Church had formally declared just four years earlier. The Church holds these apparitions as worthy of belief.

Since it falls on a Sunday of Advent, the Solemnity of the Immaculate Conception of the Blessed Virgin Mary this year is moved to December 9th and is observed as a Holy Day of Obligation in the Diocese of Camden. Catholics are obligated to attend Mass this day. The schedule at the parish is 8:30 AM and 7 PM on Monday, December 9. While I admit that there is quite often confusion regarding various Holy Days and our necessity of going to Mass, I sum matters up simply. A holy day is important because of what it celebrates and signifies. Therefore, whether or not we are required to attend Mass, the day is still holy and should be treated as such. Shouldn't we desire to go the extra mile because of our love for God to be at Mass that day whether or not we are obligated?

Our Lady, as the Immaculate Conception, is the patroness of our country and our diocese. Our cathedral in Camden is also dedicated to her under this title. She should certainly have a special place in all our hearts.

Fr. Ed Namiotka, Pastor

Second Sunday of Advent, December 8, 2024

Please note that we put the following week's Gospel passage in this space so you can prepare all week for Proclamation of the Gospel the following Sunday. Faith Sharing helps ordinary people connect their faith with everyday life experiences.

Excerpt from the Gospel for the Third Sunday of Advent, December 16, 2018 – Luke 3:10-18

The crowds asked John the Baptist, "What should we do?" John said to them, "Whoever has two cloaks should share with the person who has none. And whoever has food should do likewise." Even tax collectors came to be baptized and they said to him, "Teacher, what should we do?" John answered, "Stop collecting more than what is prescribed." All were asking in their hearts whether John might be the Christ. John answered them all, saying, "I am baptizing you with water, but one mightier than I is coming. I am not worthy to loosen the thongs of his sandals. He will baptize you with the Holy Spirit and fire."

Commentary: John's brand of advice may not have sounded like good news to those who asked for it. He urged the crowds to give away what they had in surplus to those who were in need. John basically told people to be generous and just, to clean up their acts, and to wait for the One who was coming just behind him. This is still good advice.

1. What is God saying to me in this Gospel passage?
2. What word or phrase in this Gospel speaks to me?
3. What word or phrase in the Commentary resonates with me?

Angel Tree Gift Program

THANK YOU to everyone who organized, donated a gift, gave a monetary donation, helped wrap the gifts and made the deliveries to the children. Your participation and generosity is much appreciated.

Loving Father,
Help us remember the birth of Jesus,
that we may share in the song of the angels,
the gladness of the shepherds,
and worship of the wise men.
Close the door of hate
and open the door of love all over the world.
Let kindness come with every gift
and good desires with every greeting.
Deliver us from evil by the blessing
which Christ brings,
and teach us to be merry with clear hearts.
May the Christmas morning
make us happy to be thy children,
and Christmas evening bring us to our beds
with grateful thoughts,
forgiving and forgiven,
for Jesus' sake. Amen
