THIRD SUNDAY of LENT- March 23, 2025

PARISH MISSION & VISION STATEMENTS

Mission (Purpose)

Through the Sacrament of Baptism, we the Catholic Community of St. Thomas More respond to our call to holiness.

Vision (Goals)

Empowered by Baptism, inspired by the Holy Spirit, and formed by the Word of God and the Sacraments, especially the Eucharist, we live out our Mission by working together:

- To structure prayerful, vibrant, participatory, Sunday worship experiences.
- To provide Life Long Faith formation for all age levels.
- To care for the young, the old, the sick, the hurting and the needy, both inside and outside our parish.
- To promote faith sharing, prayer, support, learning and listening to one another as a model for nourishing and sustaining our faith community.
- To welcome back, with hospitality, those who have left our faith community.

VISITATION AND ANOINTING OF THE SICK

Please call the parish office, 424-3212, if a family member is seriously ill or facing/recovering from surgery and would like to see a priest or receive the Anointing of the Sick. Holy Communion is also available to those who are homebound on an ongoing basis.

SACRAMENT OF BAPTISM

Please make arrangements for Baptism in advance through the parish office. Parents and godparents are required to attend a preparatory session.

MARRIAGE

Couples planning to marry will attend a marriage preparation program called Living in Love. Call office for appointment.

OCIA

The Order of Christian Initiation of Adults is a process of formation for full initiation into the Catholic Church. It is open to those never Baptized; those baptized in another faith; and Catholics who have not received First Holy Communion and Confirmation.

For more information, please call 424-3212

RELIGIOUS EDUCATION

God my father, I am grateful that you are kind and merciful. Too often I am more aware of my sins than my goodness. Help me to see all people the way that you see us. As you led your people out of slavery, lead me out of my slavery to sin. Through Jesus, your kindness and mercy have been given flesh. Open my arms to welcome it and give thanks, by being kind and merciful to all, one person at a time.

STEWARDSHIP CORNER

3rd Sunday of Lent

Patient Stewards

"He said to the gardener, 'For three years now I have come in search of fruit on this fig tree but have found none.'" - LUKE 13:7

We can all be like the barren fig tree at times. Do you cling to what you have, or do you generously share with others? How will you respond when God asks you what you have done with all the gifts He has given you?

Remember, not only are we called to be generous; we are called to develop and nurture our gifts as Stewards; and return them with increase. We are called to be generous with all of gifts; especially the one that means the most to you.

From the Pastor's Desk

No Device Day!

Dear Parishioners,

A few years ago, I was visiting downtown Philadelphia. I tried to find some peace and solace, for a couple of moments at least, in one of the few Catholic churches that was open daily for Eucharistic adoration. As I was sitting in the quiet, a cellular phone began to ring. It made itself known with one of those old-fashioned telephone bell rings: brrring! brrring! . . . brrring! brrring! Its owner quickly silenced it.

After a few moments, I resumed my prayerful silence. I was somewhere in the middle of a heartfelt petition to God when another phone went off. This time a modern ringtone made its owner (and the rest of us) aware of its pending message with a catchy (no, annoying) tune. A not-too-quiet gentleman-owner proceeded to answer the phone: "Hello! Yea! I'm in church now. Hold on a sec." He continued to talk for another minute or so as he headed for the church door. Out he went. Good riddance!

Determined, once again, I resumed my intimate conversation with The Almighty. I tried to find at least a moment of much-desired tranquility. Momentarily, however, the same gentleman was back inside the church walking down the aisle. That stupid phone started to bellow once again. It reminded me of an obstinate, spoiled child clamoring for the attention of its parent. "Hello! Yea! I'm in Church." Here we go again! I was too annoyed (no, angry) to pay attention to the rest of his conversation.

I was resolved at that point, if God would permit it, to become a Tibetan monk. No cell phones. No tablets. No electronic devices at all! Period. (Be careful of what you may ask for or desire!)

When did a mobile phone become an inseparable appendage to the human body? A tablet now frequently substitutes as a baby-sitter to keep the children amused or quiet. People are fixated surfing the internet for hours upon hours each day. Cellular phone zombies would walk into traffic and various inanimate objects and innocent bystanders while texting regularly. We are sternly warned not to text and drive, yet it unfortunately still goes on. Vitamins are now advertised to help protect the eyes from computer vision syndrome (CVS). Let's face it. People are addicted to their electronic devices.

I have a unique suggestion for a day in Lent. Why not try fasting from your electronic devices for a just a day? No Device Day.

I bet you can't do it! I dare you! I have done this occasionally, like on Thanksgiving or Christmas Day, when I was with my family. I leave the phone in its charger in my room for the day. I really don't need to use it and I don't. Those who are important to me are currently with me. People mean so much more than some stupid device. No Device Day.

I double dare you! If it is not necessary to communicate with an isolated or quarantined loved one, try putting your phone or other device away for the day—the entire day. Find a day when the phone or computer is not necessary for work. No Facebook, X (formerly Twitter), TikTok or Instagram. No text messages. No annoying calls. No internet or computer either. Resurrect the art of conversation! Play a classic board game or card game with the family. Read a book. Pray the Holy Rosary. Weather permitting, go outside and shoot a basketball or kick a soccer ball. Get off the couch and get dirty in the yard. More importantly, put down and put away the device.

It wasn't until the end of the last century that human beings became addicted to electronics. For most of human history people did not own any of the devices that so many of us can't seem to do without today. No Device Day.

Maybe it can become a national (no, worldwide) trend. I double dog dare you!

Fr. Ed Namiołka, Pastor

(As an aside, I recently saw Bp. Robert Barron suggest the same practice on a YouTube video. I love it when bishops finally agree with me!)

"Our Journey United in Hope," is inspired by the theme of the Jubilee Year, "Pilgrims of Hope."

It reflects our collective commitment to walk on the path together with the hope Christ has provided us.

By supporting the Catholic Ministries Appeal, you are supporting those who comprise the programs and ministries of the Diocese of Camden. These ministries serve the physical, emotional and spiritual needs of the hungry and challenged.

To date we have $21,001.50 (28.3%) of our Goal.

Your gift to the Catholic Ministries Appeal supports the Deaf and Persons with Disabilities: This essential ministry nurtures and assists those facing special physical challenges, which affect their access to the sacramental life of the Church and the support of our community of faith.

THIRD SUNDAY of LENT- March 23, 2025

Please note that we put the following week's Gospel passage in this space so you can prepare all week for Proclamation of the Gospel the following Sunday. Faith Sharing helps ordinary people connect their faith with everyday life experiences.

Excerpt from the Gospel for the Fourth Sunday of Lent, March 30, 2025 – Luke 15:1-3, 11-32

(The parable of the Prodigal Son) While he was still a long way off, his father caught sight of him, and was filled with compassion. He ran to his son, embraced him and kissed him. The son said to him, "Father, I have sinned against heaven and against you; I no longer deserve to be called your son." (The father ordered a feast to celebrate the young son's return. The older son, on hearing about the feast grew angry and jealous. He had been faithful and had no party. His younger brother had strayed from home and now was being rewarded with a feast). The father said to the older son, "My son, you are here with me always; everything I have is yours. But now we must celebrate and rejoice, because your brother was dead and has come to life again; he was lost and has been found."

Commentary: Jesus says to the prodigal in all of us: "You do have a father like this. He is waiting for you to find yourself, your true self made in his image and likeness, and come on home. Never mind where you've been or what you did. The most important thing is who you are: a child of God. There's not a thing you can do to lose that identity. The party waits for you."

Questions for Reflection and Sharing:

1. What is God saying to me in this Gospel passage?
2. What word or phrase in this Gospel speaks to me?
3. What word or phrase in the Reflection resonates with me?

Since 2001, members of Congress have attempted to pass legislation that would provide Dreamers with permanent legal status and a pathway to citizenship. The U.S. Conference of Catholic Bishops (USCCB) has long supported bills, such as the DREAM Act, that would provide this population access to permanent legal status. As the 119th Congress moves forward, legislators should protect and support Dreamers, especially DACA beneficiaries and those who are part of mixed-status families. Only Congress is empowered to provide a permanent solution for Dreamers.

Additionally, any legislation put forward in the coming months should respect the inviolable dignity of these and other immigrants, taking into consideration their profound contributions to our nation and the well-being of families. With efforts currently underway to advance a reconciliation bill in Congress, it is vital that legislators exclude from this measure changes to existing law that would adversely impact mixed-status families, including limiting eligibility for mixed-status families in such a way that prevents them from accessing the same support as other American families. Our society is only as strong as its families, and that includes those comprised of people with different immigration statuses. Take Action at usccb.org, click Issues & Action,

The St. Thomas More Consolation Ministry to the bereaved will be holding its next meeting on Friday, March 28, 2025, at 1 pm in the St. Thomas More Hall.

We hope you will allow us to walk alongside you through your grief journey as a companion who has seen the same terrain. Join us or call for more information.
