PARISH MISSION & VISION STATEMENTS

Mission (Purpose)

Through the Sacrament of Baptism, we the Catholic Community of St. Thomas More respond to our call to holiness.

Vision (Goals)

Empowered by Baptism, inspired by the Holy Spirit, and formed by the Word of God and the Sacraments, especially the Eucharist, we live out our Mission by working together:

- To structure prayerful, vibrant, participatory, Sunday worship experiences.
- To provide Life Long Faith formation for all age levels.
- To care for the young, the old, the sick, the hurting and the needy, both inside and outside our parish.
- To promote faith sharing, prayer, support, learning and listening to one another as a model for nourishing and sustaining our faith community.
- To welcome back, with hospitality, those who have left our faith community.

VISITATION AND ANOINTING OF THE SICK

Please call the parish office, 424-3212, if a family member is seriously ill or facing/recovering from surgery and would like to see a priest or receive the Anointing of the Sick. Holy Communion is also available to those who are homebound on an ongoing basis.

SACRAMENT OF BAPTISM

Please make arrangements for Baptism in advance through the parish office. Parents and godparents are required to attend a preparatory session.

MARRIAGE

Couples planning to marry will attend a marriage preparation program called Living in Love. Call office for appointment.

OCIA

The Order of Christian Initiation of Adults is a process of formation for full initiation into the Catholic Church. It is open to those never Baptized; those baptized in another faith; and Catholics who have not received First Holy Communion and Confirmation.

O God, our resurrection and life, the promise of Your new life in Christ is like a breath of fresh air in a dry and thirsty land. We come to You as believers, and as those who are honestly seeking the truth. May Your truth touch not just our intellects, but also our deeper yearnings of heart and soul. We bring with us our daily concerns, as well as our more eternal questions. May Your new creation in us shed light upon our everyday walk.

STEWARDSHIP CORNER

Sunday of Divine Mercy

Stewards Sent

"Jesus said to them again, 'Peace be with you. As the Father has sent me, so I send you.'" (JOHN 20:21)

Peace – the first gift of the risen Lord. Just as Jesus sent the apostles out into the world, so too, He sends his Stewards. As disciples of Jesus, we are called to be compassionate and merciful; and not with just those who are our friends, but also with our "enemies." Think of someone in your life who you need to reconcile with. Call them right now or better yet, go visit them.

From the Pastor's Desk

Divine Mercy Sunday, 2025

Dear Parishioners,

The Sunday after Easter has been designated in the Catholic Church as Divine Mercy Sunday.

On April 30, 2000 (Divine Mercy Sunday of that year), Pope John Paul II canonized St. Maria Faustina of the Blessed Sacrament and designated the Sunday after Easter as Divine Mercy Sunday.

According to the notebooks of Saint Faustina, Jesus made the following statements about this day:

On that day the very depths of My tender mercy are open. I pour out a whole ocean of graces upon those souls who approach the fount of My mercy. The soul that will go to Confession and receive Holy Communion shall obtain complete forgiveness of sins and punishment. On that day all the divine floodgates through which grace flow are opened. Let no soul fear to draw near to Me, even though its sins be as scarlet. My mercy is so great that no mind, be it of man or of angel, will be able to fathom it throughout all eternity. (Diary of Saint Faustina, # 699)

Devotion to Divine Mercy is also associated with an image painted as Jesus wished, based on descriptions by Saint Faustina. The words that accompany the image are "Jesus, I trust in Thee" ("Jezu, Ufam Tobie" in Polish). The rays coming from Jesus' body represent the Blood (red) and water (white) that poured forth from the wound He suffered when pierced by the lance. They are interpreted as representing the Holy Eucharist and Baptism.

The devotion is practiced by praying the Divine Mercy Chaplet and Novena to the Divine Mercy—both of which may be prayed at any time, but especially at "The Hour of Great Mercy"—3:00 PM, the hour our Lord died, and in conjunction with Divine Mercy Sunday.

I find it particularly interesting that after working to promote devotion to the Divine Mercy and even writing an encyclical about God's Mercy—Dives in Misericordia or Rich in Mercy (1980)—Pope (now Saint) John Paul II died during the vigil of Divine Mercy Sunday in 2005.

Is this just mere coincidence or another indication of the hand of God continually at work in our world?

Incidentally, Pope Francis' funeral Mass is scheduled to be celebrated on the vigil of Divine Mercy (Saturday, April 26) this year.

May God show His Divine Mercy to Pope Francis and may the Holy Spirit guide the College of Cardinals to choose the person God wills to head the Holy Catholic Church as the next successor of St. Peter.

Jesus I trust in Thee!

Fr. Ed Namiołka, Pastor

(St. Mary's Church on 2001 Springdale Rd., Cherry Hill is scheduled for devotions to the Divine Mercy beginning at 3 PM this Sunday, April 27)

Laws which legitimize the direct killing of innocent human beings through abortion or euthanasia are in complete opposition to the inviolable right to life proper to every individual; they thus deny the equality of everyone before the law. Pope John Paul II, Evangelium vitae (1995), no. 72.

“Our Journey United in Hope,” Campaign Prayer

Heavenly Father,

In this time of planning and service, we ask that you bring us hope. Hope that will renew us in this journey to build up the Church in South Jersey.

Accept and use our Stewardship to the South Jersey Catholic Ministries Appeal in the same way you Multiplied the loaves and fishes to feed a multitude.

We ask this through Jesus Christ our Lord, Who with You and the Holy Spirit lives and Reigns One God forever and ever. Amen.

We are the Church and this is our calling. Since the time of the first apostles, we have been charged with providing care to those who need it, inspired by the sacrificial love our Savior taught us. It is our hope that you will answer that call, as you faithfully do each year, and join together in doing something wonderful.

Thank you to all who already made a gift!

If you have not, pledge cards are at the doors of the Church.

Please prayerfully consider donating once again.

Our Goal this year is $74,300.00

For the use of the new technologies

Let us pray that the use of the new technologies will not replace human relationships, will respect the dignity of the person, and will help us face the crises of our times.

SECOND SUNDAY of EASTER—April 27, 2025

Please note that we put the following week's Gospel passage in this space so you can prepare all week for Proclamation of the Gospel the following Sunday. Faith Sharing helps ordinary people connect their faith with everyday life experiences.

Excerpt from the Gospel for Third Sunday of Easter, May 4, 2025 – John 21: 1-19

When they had finished breakfast, Jesus said to Simon Peter, "Simon, son of John, do you love me more than these?" Peter said to Jesus, "Yes, Lord, you know that I love you." Jesus said to him, "Feed my lambs." Jesus then said to Peter a second time, "Simon, son of John, do you love me?" Peter said, "Yes, Lord, you know that I love you." Jesus said, "Tend my sheep." Jesus said to Peter the third time, "Simon, son of John do you love me?" Peter was distressed that he had said to him a third time, "Do you love me?" and Peter said to him, "Lord, you know everything; you know that I love you." Jesus said to him, "Feed my sheep."

Commentary:

Peter feels bad at being asked three times about his love for Jesus. Peter has failed at love, totally blown it, and he knows it. We've all been traitors to love time and again in many ways: as selfish spouses, unfairly critical parents, thoughtless friends, or insensitive neighbors. Most of all, we have not loved God the way we're supposed to. So what do we do when we've failed miserably at love? Why not reaffirm our love three times: for anyone we have offended. Jesus seems quite ready to receive Peter's love again without penalty. In fact, as the story goes, Peter's affirmation of love is rewarded with greater trust than before. Despite our faulty history, we may wind up in charge of larger things.

1. What is God saying to me in this Gospel passage?
2. What word or phrase in this Gospel speaks to me?
3. What word or phrase in the Reflection resonates with me?
