PARISH MISSION & VISION STATEMENTS

Mission (Purpose)

Through the Sacrament of Baptism, we the Catholic Community of St. Thomas More respond to our call to holiness.

Vision (Goals)

Empowered by Baptism, inspired by the Holy Spirit, and formed by the Word of God and the Sacraments, especially the Eucharist, we live out our Mission by working together:

- To structure prayerful, vibrant, participatory, Sunday worship experiences.
- To provide Life Long Faith formation for all age levels.
- To care for the young, the old, the sick, the hurting and the needy, both inside and outside our parish.
- To promote faith sharing, prayer, support, learning and listening to one another as a model for nourishing and sustaining our faith community.
- To welcome back, with hospitality, those who have left our faith community.

VISITATION AND ANOINTING OF THE SICK

Please call the parish office, 424-3212, if a family member is seriously ill or facing/recovering from surgery and would like to see a priest or receive the Anointing of the Sick. Holy Communion is also available to those who are homebound on an ongoing basis.

SACRAMENT OF BAPTISM

Please make arrangements for Baptism in advance through the parish office. Parents and godparents are required to attend a preparatory session.

MARRIAGE

Couples planning to marry will attend a marriage preparation program called Living in Love. Call office for appointment.

OCIA

The Order of Christian Initiation of Adults is a process of formation for full initiation into the Catholic Church. It is open to those never Baptized; those baptized in another faith; and Catholics who have not received First Holy Communion and Confirmation.

For more information, please call 424-3212

RELIGIOUS EDUCATION

STEWARDSHIP CORNER

God centered Stewards

“Take care to guard against all greed, for though one may be rich, one’s life does not consist of possessions.” LUKE 12:15

The Gospel message is contrary to modern culture that continually tries to convince us that our joy comes from the material things we possess. That the more we acquire, the happier we will be. Jesus shows us that our true joy comes from our “invisible” gifts like love, mercy, and forgiveness. True joy comes from “emptying” ourselves, giving of ourselves rather than always taking. We are called not to hoard but to share. True joy comes from living Stewardship in a grateful and generous lifestyle. Become more “God-centered” and less “self-centered.”

Treasure in Heaven

Dear Parishioners,

Our cruise in the Mediterranean is coming to an end as I write this bulletin article. Visiting seven countries (Spain, France, Italy, Vatican City, Malta, Tunisia, and Greece) in a short span of time was quite the challenging task. However, our floating hotel, the Holland America Oosterdam proved a worthy means of accomplishing our journey. As stated last week, I travel with a brother priest, Fr. Larry Polansky.

We are currently anchored off the shore of Greece. To reach the little port town (Gythion) we need to take a tender (small transport boat). I would rather just walk off the ship, but small ports often necessitate the tender process when it comes to cruise ships.

While waiting for the transport to shore to begin, I glanced at this Sunday's Gospel passage and readings. Jesus relates a parable regarding storing up treasure in heaven. Hmmm . . . I have just seen a multitude of beautiful countries, cities, and towns. Spending much time in various cathedrals and churches, I continue to be in awe of the works of art contained in each, in addition to their ornate, massive structures. I walked through the immense Vatican museum, gazed at the ceiling and walls of the Sistine chapel, and marveled at the beauty of Michelangelo's Pieta. Concentrating especially on works of art primarily intended to glorify Almighty God, I pondered how they will all pass away some day. No matter how beautiful, they are only temporary and intended for this world.

What really matters in the grand schema of things? . . . The spiritual, the eternal, those treasures in heaven. The Catholic churches all had a Blessed Sacrament chapel or chapels. It soon became obvious to me how many people are truly unaware of the Real Presence of Jesus in the Most Blessed Sacrament. Tourists walk by the Tabernacle often without any acknowledgement or realization that Jesus is there. Yes, the buildings and works of art are beautiful and should be photographed or captured on video. Yet, Jesus is there, right in front of us all. He is God. He will reign for all eternity.

For a brief moment during each hectic day, I would often stop to pray where I could find some private space. The hurried movement, the noise, the pushing and shoving, and all of the other elements and traits of travel and tourism can get to a person. To find that quiet space, whether it ideally be in a church before the Blessed Sacrament, or a corner of the ship away from the massive crowds, a person needs to realize what is truly important in life, its treasures. The intimate relationship with Almighty God in prayer is more valuable than all of the sightseeing adventures and works of art. The opportunity to offer Mass for the group of fellow travelers was another blessing given us on the journey. To meet and get to know some fellow passengers – like a Catholic deacon and his wife and a Jewish doctor and his wife – and many others, added to the blessings of the journey, its treasures. And to travel with a brother priest who had never been to Europe or on a cruise . . . Blessing? Curse? Both? The jury is still out. (Only kidding Fr. Larry.)

As you read this, I should be back in the parish offering the Sunday Mass (barring any unforeseen circumstance). Once again I get to experience another spiritual treasure afforded to a priest and pastor--ministering to my congregation and seeing my parishioners! It will be good to be back home!

"Our Journey United in Hope," Campaign Prayer

Heavenly Father,

In this time of planning and service, we ask that you bring us hope. Hope that will renew us in this journey to build up the Church in South Jersey. Accept and use our Stewardship to the South Jersey Catholic Ministries Appeal in the same way you Multiplied the loaves and fishes to feed a multitude.

We ask this through Jesus Christ our Lord, Who with You and the Holy Spirit lives and Reigns One God forever and ever. Amen.

Thank you to all who already made a gift!

If you have not, pledge cards are at the doors of the Church.

Our Church's Jubilee celebration calls us to be pilgrims of Hope to those who find themselves in need: the poor, the elderly, the sick, the imprisoned, the young and many others.

Please prayerfully consider donating. We are getting close to our goal. In the spirit of the JUBILEE Year, 100% of what we realize over goal will remain with the parish.

Our Goal this year is $74,300.00
To date we have reached $49,490.00

Eighteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time—August 3, 2025

Please note that we put the following week's Gospel passage in this space so you can prepare all week for Proclamation of the Gospel the following Sunday.

Excerpt from the Gospel for the Nineteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time, August 10, 2025- Luke 12:32-48

"Blessed are those servants whom the master finds vigilant on his arrival. Amen, I say to you, he will gird himself, have them recline at table, and proceed to wait on them. And should he come in the second or third watch and find them prepared in this way, blessed are those servants. Be sure of this: if the master of the house had known the hour when the thief was coming, he would not have let his house be broken into. You must be prepared, for at an hour you do not expect, the Son of Man will come."

Commentary:

It's encouraging to think of good things done in secret, but we know that a lot of what happens under cover of darkness is not good. While no one is looking, dieters cheat, workers slack off, murders are committed, violence is perpetrated, children are abused, the sick are neglected, the poor slide into despair, and lovers are unfaithful. Jesus issues a strong warning to those who act one way when observed and another when no one is looking. Integrity comes from a root word meaning whole or entire. Our wholeness depends on our being the same person all the time, to those with power over us as with those over whom we exercise authority, in the dark as in the light. If we're nice to some and mean to others, respectful or abusive depending on the situation, honest or deceitful in turns, we are in grave danger of losing ourselves completely. 1. What is God saying to me in this Gospel passage?

2. What word or phrase in this Gospel speaks to me? 3. What word or phrase in the Reflection resonates with me?

We provide compassionate outreach to the elderly, persons with disabilities and their families throughout the South Jersey area offering programs and services to support health and well-being needs of body, mind and spirit.

Counties served: Camden, Gloucester, Atlantic, Salem, Cumberland, Cape May

Services provided: Care Coordination, Hospital Chaplaincy, Ministry With the Deaf & Persons with Disabilities, Parish Nurse Program, Senior Ministry, Stephen Ministry

Cost: Our services are given freely regardless of income or religious affiliation.

Dignity of Work and the Rights of Workers

"We consider it our duty to reaffirm that the remuneration of work is not something that can be left to the laws of the marketplace; nor should it be a decision left to the will of the more powerful. It must be determined in accordance with justice and equity; which means that workers must be paid a wage which allows them to live a truly human life and to fulfill their family obligations in a worthy manner."

--- Mater et Magistra, #71, 1961, Pope John XXIII
