Twentieth Sunday in Ordinary Time—August 17, 2025

PARISH MISSION & VISION STATEMENTS

Mission (Purpose)

Through the Sacrament of Baptism, we the Catholic Community of St. Thomas More respond to our call to holiness.

Vision (Goals)

Empowered by Baptism, inspired by the Holy Spirit, and formed by the Word of God and the Sacraments, especially the Eucharist, we live out our Mission by working together:

- To structure prayerful, vibrant, participatory, Sunday worship experiences.
- To provide Life Long Faith formation for all age levels.
- To care for the young, the old, the sick, the hurting and the needy, both inside and outside our parish.
- To promote faith sharing, prayer, support, learning and listening to one another as a model for nourishing and sustaining our faith community.
- To welcome back, with hospitality, those who have left our faith community.

VISITATION AND ANOINTING OF THE SICK

Please call the parish office, 424-3212, if a family member is seriously ill or facing/recovering from surgery and would like to see a priest or receive the Anointing of the Sick. Holy Communion is also available to those who are homebound on an ongoing basis.

SACRAMENT OF BAPTISM

Please make arrangements for Baptism in advance through the parish office. Parents and godparents are required to attend a preparatory session.

MARRIAGE

Couples planning to marry will attend a marriage preparation program called Living in Love. Call office for appointment.

OCIA

The Order of Christian Initiation of Adults is a process of formation for full initiation into the Catholic Church. It is open to those never Baptized; those baptized in another faith; and Catholics who have not received First Holy Communion and Confirmation.

For more information, please call 424-3212

STEWARDSHIP CORNER

20th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Stewardship Truth

"Do you think I have come to give you peace on Earth? No, I tell you, but rather division." LUKE
Many of us like to play it safe, not cause waves with our family and friends, especially when it comes to politics and religion. We don't want to cause any turmoil. However, many times this is at the expense of the truth. The truth being Jesus Christ. Too many people are misguided because they rely on their own limited human ability to reason and are not allowing faith in God to guide them.

From the Pastor's Desk

"I Have Come to Cast Fire upon the Earth"

Dear Parishioners,

The Gospel reading for this Sunday (Lk. 12: 49-53) might make a person very uncomfortable or even troubled. If you have been fed a type of sugar-sweet Jesus most of your life—being presented only with an ultra-compassionate, always-forgiving, never-judgmental savior—then you could seriously doubt that Jesus would ever say such things. One reaction to this Gospel might be to gloss over it quickly. Let's pretend that it does not exist. This is not the Jesus I know. He is merciful, forgiving, and patient. He prays in St. John's Gospel (17:21) "that they all may be one. . . ." He would never want any division among us.

There's a problem when we do not see the more complete picture of Jesus as presented in the Gospels. Jesus is the one who called the scribes and Pharisees a brood of vipers (Mt. 12:34), hypocrites and white-washed tombs (Mt. 23: 27). He told us to pluck out our eyes and to cut off our hands (Mt. 5: 29-30) to avoid sin. He made a whip out of cords and overturned the money changers tables in the temple (Jn. 2: 13-16). He called Peter, his close friend, "Satan" and told him to get behind Him (Mt. 16:23). In the Gospel this Sunday, He speaks about casting fire on the earth and creating division—even within families. What gives?

How we react to Jesus' teaching might just depend on how we are living our lives. Jesus sometimes has to jolt people out of complacency or erroneous thinking: "You are thinking not as God does but as human beings do." (Mt. 16:23) He requires a radical change in our way of living when we are headed to eternal destruction: "Go [and] from now on do not sin any more." (Jn. 8: 11) He demands things from us that are not appealing: "If anyone wishes to come after me, he must deny himself and pick up his cross daily and follow me." (Lk. 9:23) One thing that can be determined upon thorough investigation: Jesus was not some pushover and his teaching inevitably made an impact on people. ". . . For he taught them as one having authority, and not as their scribes." (Mt. 7: 29)

Jesus' chosen path to freeing us from sin and eternal damnation was through the cross. It involved suffering and a sacrificial love. It involved the Son of God being put to death by His creatures. His life and teaching cast a fire upon the earth. He jolted those who were complacent in their sin. He upset the status quo and the religious leaders of His time. And some totally resented Him. Some wanted to see Him dead. Crucify Him! Crucify Him!

The reaction today to Jesus' teaching and to his actions can and does create division in families, in communities, and in nations throughout the world. The call to conversion and repentance does not necessarily bring peace to those resistant to change. People can become very, very comfortable in their sin. Nobody is going to tell me what to do. Some might follow Him, while others reject Him. His moral requirements require a decision from us. If one tries to straddle the fence, it promises not to go well. "I know your works; I know that you are neither cold nor hot. I wish you were either cold or hot. So, because you are lukewarm, neither hot nor cold, I will spit you out of my mouth." (Rev. 3: 15-16)

Does Jesus' teaching upset you?

Is it hard to take?

Will you resist His challenges or acknowledge them and be willing to change?

"Our Journey United in Hope,"
Campaign Prayer

Heavenly Father,

In this time of planning and service, we ask that you bring us hope. Hope that will renew us in this journey to build up the Church in South Jersey. Accept and use our Stewardship to the South Jersey Catholic Ministries Appeal in the same way you Multiplied the loaves and fishes to feed a multitude.

We ask this through Jesus Christ our Lord, Who with You and the Holy Spirit lives and Reigns One God forever and ever. Amen.

Thank you to all who already made a gift!

If you have not, pledge cards are at the doors of the Church.

Our Church's Jubilee celebration calls us to be pilgrims of Hope to those who find themselves in need: the poor, the elderly, the sick, the imprisoned, the young and many others.

Please prayerfully consider donating. We are getting close to our goal. In the spirit of the JUBILEE Year, 100% of what we realize over goal will remain with the parish.

Our Goal this year is $74,300.00

To date we have reached $51,990.00

Twentieth Sunday in Ordinary Time—August 17, 2025

Please note that we put the following week's Gospel passage in this space so you can prepare all week for Proclamation of the Gospel the following Sunday.

Excerpt from the Gospel for the Twenty-first Sunday in Ordinary Time, August 24, 2025 Luke 13:22-30

Someone asked Jesus: "Lord, will only a few people be saved?" He answered them, "Strive to enter through the narrow gate, for many, I tell you, will attempt to enter but will not be strong enough. After the master of the house has arisen and locked the door, then will you stand outside knocking and saying, 'Lord, open the door for us.' He will say to you in reply, 'I do not know where you are from.' And you will say, 'We ate and drank in your company and you taught in our streets.' Then he will say to you, 'I do not know where you are from. Depart from me, all you evil doers!...And people will come from the east and the west and from the north and the south and will reclining at table in the kingdom of God. For, behold, some are last who will be first, and some who are first will be last.'"

Commentary:

To assure our eternal salvation, many of us like religious systems that are clean and simple. Ten Commandments to obey. Sacraments to receive. Rules to follow. Authorities to trust. However, when asked about the most important commandment, Jesus talks about love, which is notoriously hard to pin down. When you ask Jesus to take a stand—God or Caesar? - Jesus simply says it depends on the situation. Here, someone asks Jesus to elaborate on the salvation issue. Jesus simply says choose the hard way. If you have to ask, do more. Live out the image of God in you, and God will recognize you when it is your turn to knock on the door

1. What is God saying to me in this Gospel passage?
2. What word or phrase in this Gospel speaks to me?
3. What word or phrase in the Commentary resonates with me?

Pope Leo XIV's Prayer for August

Jesus, Lord of our history,
Faithful companion and living presence,
You who never tire of coming to meet us,
Here we are, in need of your peace.
We live in times of fear and division.
Sometimes we act as if we were alone,
Building walls that separate us from one another,
Forgetting that we are brothers and sisters.
Send us your Spirit, Lord,
To rekindle within us
The desire to understand one another, to listen,
To live together with respect and compassion.
Give us the courage to seek paths of dialogue,
To respond to conflict with gestures of fraternity,
To open our hearts to others without fear of differences.
Make us builders of bridges,
Able to overcome borders and ideologies,
Able to see others through the eyes of the heart,
Recognizing in every person an inviolable dignity.
Help us create spaces where hope can flourish,
Where diversity is not a threat
But a richness that makes us more human.
Amen.
